Indonesia based Blooming Lotus Yoga now gives students the opportunity to experience an extraordinary combination of Yoga, Tantra and Vedanta during their bi-annual Yoga Teacher Training (YTT) Certification Courses. Blooming Lotus Yoga conducts their yoga training courses in the beautiful environment of Bali, and the island offers visitors the opportunity to absorb the rich culture and nature that the island is known for.

The number of aspiring yoga teachers seeking out training in Bali has shot up quite recently, with dozens of yoga enthusiasts making their way to island to learn the art. Many of the people that have chosen to seek out this particular yoga teacher training Bali has available have come back feeling transformed by the experience and ready to share their newfound knowledge with the world. There are many institutions and individuals that offer yoga teacher training in Bali but Blooming Lotus Yoga has proven to be consistently one of the most popular among them. The yoga training centre is known for their highly immersive 200 hour Yoga Teacher Training Certification Courses.

The center's Yoga Teacher Training Intensives offer intimate class sizes for personalized mentoring. Not only does this ensure that the teaching process is more thorough and personalized, it also allows for the outpouring of unconditional love that is so important to creating the right state of mind for a practitioner of yoga. The Yoga Teacher Training course comes at a much more affordable cost than most others as well, as the focus is mainly on providing insight into deep esoteric knowledge of yoga or Vidya and giving trainees the opportunity to immerse themselves fully within the essence of Yoga.

“These Yoga Teacher Training Courses are perfect for aspiring teachers and those that wish to deepen their practice by living Yoga to the fullest where everything is seen as Yoga,” says Blooming Lotus Yoga. “Be prepared to embody and teach Yoga with utmost love, compassion, skill and wisdom. A deep inner transformation will take place that will connect you to your Divine Self, which is endowed with infinite knowledge and grace. The Blooming Lotus Yoga Teacher Training Certification is a rare combination of the subtle esoteric practices and philosophy of traditional Yoga along with the holistic and integrative approach of the Western mind.”

The primary focus of The Blooming Lotus Yoga Teacher Training is Self-Realization. The training program is meant to awaken one’s full potential and, from this place, allow them to acquire all the knowledge, skills and compassion necessary to become a great Yoga Teacher themselves. The training centre has received a multitude of reviews from Yoga enthusiasts from all over the world who chose to train with Blooming Lotus Yoga. “I’m not even sure how to describe my experience with words. I have been lucky enough to attend both the 7-day retreat and the full YTT at Blooming Lotus. The training is heavily based on tradition and spirituality, which is exactly what I was looking for to further my own practice. The teachers are amazing beings, each with so much unique insight to offer, who truly do live and breathe yoga,” says a TripAdvisor review from a Canadian student.

She continues her 5-Star review, stating, “Through them, I was able to take my practice to depths I didn’t even think I was capable of, and I left with renewed faith and trust in the universe and the crazy mysteries of life. You will leave with a sense of wonderment, humbleness and deep connection to yourself with a desire to go deeper. If you are looking to connect, reconnect or begin the intense journey of finding yourself, I highly recommend Blooming Lotus Yoga.”
