IAOHS or International Association of Headache Specialists is a platform that helps patients find headache specialists near them. The platform has been working towards making the process of finding headache specialists easy and fast. Recently the platform has updated their search engine to include more doctors in different locations.

During the announcement, a representative from the platform said, "We have built an easy-to-use platform that will be helping you, the patient, find a headache specialist near you. Just like people use search engines, the platform has a search box that requires you to enter the keyword which is your location and what you are looking for. The results will come back with a map and all the clinics that are within your location. To make things easy, we also have a radius setting that allows you to select the area you want the search to cover."

There are many people looking for special medical services and filtering other services might prove hectic for most of them. The platform has, therefore specialized on headaches and has ensured that there are headache specialists in different location.

?We have made it a point to bring the best headache specialists in different locations to give patients a wide range of specialists to choose from according to services and convenience. You will get a chance to go through the reviews to find out what other patients have to say about the headache doctor.?
