Valencia, California -- The Healing Touch announces that their flagship scar removal, which is exclusive to Amazon, is now back in stock. The Healing Touch specializes in a scar cream that works. This fact has led to the scar removal being often depleted and has customers waiting for its availability.

"We are proud to announce that we are currently back in stock though only with a limited supply," stated Raul Meza, director at The Healing Touch. "We are trying to keep stock on hand but the word of mouth and all of the positive reviews make it hard to stay ahead of the demand."

To help meet the demand, The Healing Touch has now released the 2oz version of their highly successful Premium Scar Gel. This jar provides twice the amount that comes in the original scar gel and is priced lower ounce per ounce. As of this printing both sizes are currently in stock.

Passionate Care is so confident that this is the best scar removal cream that they offer it with a 60 day, no questions asked, money back guarantee. Judging from the various reviews the product has received, it seems that Passionate Care has indeed been able to deliver the results that customers demand.
