The cost of living in California, specifically Brea, has left many of its residents in serious financial trouble and it shows no signs of going down. California is known for its incredibly high prices when it comes to purchasing a home, or simply living day to day, and many people are forced to relocate in order to have any hope of making ends meet. This is especially true of Brea, a city in Orange County. The city, which is located 33 miles southeast of Los Angeles, has developed a reputation for being very expensive to live in, even by California standards.

?I have lived in Orange County and Los Angeles County for over 20 years. The cost of living has prompted 3 of my friends to move to Central Valley, Oregon and Washington State. Even though I live in a nice mobile home community, half of my income goes towards rent,? says Patricia, a Brea resident on BestPlaces.net, and she is just one of the many residents in Brea that have experienced the city?s severe cost of living. According to BestPlaces, Brea?s cost of living index comes up 169.1 compared to the national average of 100.

The biggest factor in the extreme difference in cost of living between Brea, the rest of California and the rest of the country is the cost of housing. The median home price in Brea is $707,900 compared to California?s median home cost of $552,800 and the national median home cost of $231,200. Groceries and transportation cost slightly more than the national average, but the biggest expense faced by Brea residents is the cost of housing.

With such differences in the cost of living, it comes as no surprise that many of the city?s residents find themselves facing serious financial issues and are in need of financial aid. This is where companies like Title Loans Express come in. ?When hard times hit, quick financial help isn?t always available in your greatest time of need. This is especially true when you?re hard-pressed for luck and keep going from bank to bank for help. Sadly, not all financial institutions can fit the bill when it comes to helping your situation,? says TLE?s site. ?Luckily, Brea Title Loans is here to help. We stand out in an endless sea of faceless banks and financial institutions. What makes us so distinctive is our reliability. You can depend on us! When banks and other financial institutions fall through and don?t give you the loan that you need, Brea Title Loans will help you. We?ll meet you where you?re at and give you a helping hand.? The company?s site can be found at https://www.titleloansexpress.com/locations/brea-title-loans/.

TLE offers financial aid by allowing their clients to use their vehicles as collateral in order to secure fast cash. The borrower only needs to provide a car title, and TLE Brea will offer cash based on the value of the applicant?s car. The biggest advantage such a system has over ordinary financial aid providers is the speed and ease of the application process. With banks and other such institutions, it is very difficult to be approved for any amount of money and one small issue in one?s financial history can make it completely impossible to get any sort of financial aid. Bad credit is just one of the many factors that may lead to one failing to get the cash they need, and TLE does not consider it when looking at an application. As their site says, ?We don?t do credit checks so don?t let that stop you from applying.? Find out more about Title Pawn Brea online.

A number of Brea residents have gone to TLE looking for financial aid, and upon receiving the help they needed left positive reviews of the financial service. ?I can?t describe the amount of anxiety that was relieved when I was in a position to takeout financing against my car. Everyone was really helpful and positive from the beginning to the end, and I was able to get a security loan without having to dive deep into my unpleasant economic past,? one five star Google Maps review of the financial aid provider states.

Another client on the same platform said about TLE, ?This is an awesome company with a great staff. They will help you get the money you need. I dealt directly with Mark and he was wonderful and quick. I'd definitely go through this company again if I ever got in a bind.?

TLE Brea is ready and willing to help Brea, California residents survive the tough economic climate of the state. Read more about the company in their press releases at https://www.pressadvantage.com/organization/tle-brea.
