December 07, 2019 -
Minneapolis, MN based Fast Eddys Keys Express is delighted to announce that they are making a bid for local customers to consider them their go-to experts for any and all locksmith-related situations. To this end, the company has launched a new webpage on their website that is dedicated to showing local residents what they stand to gain when they approach Fast Eddys Keys Express for help.

Dubbed ?Locksmith Near Me? the page says that, ?When a lock needs to be changed; due to theft, personnel policy, loss of a key, there?s no time to waste. The window of opportunity to prevent a crime is in the first 48 hours. Fortunately, Fast Eddys Keys Express provides commercial and residential locksmith service to any location in the Minneapolis area, including suburbs. We are also one of the area?s top car locksmiths.?

They further explain that the most common way that unauthorized parties gain access through a locked door is with a duplicate key. Keys can be misplaced for short periods of time, or perhaps they can be lent to seemingly trustworthy individuals in emergency situations. The issue is that duplicates can be made quickly and unobtrusively in a variety of locations, giving the would-be intruder the ability to access the owner?s home at any time they wish. To combat this, Fast Eddys Keys Express highly recommends that homeowners switch out their standard locks as soon as possible, especially when they newly move in to the property.

Edward Mann, the owner-operator of Fast Eddys Keys Express, has been a locksmith since he founded the company back in 1985. He says, ?My suggestion is to replace standard locks with high security products by Schlage Primus. My Primus keys are not sold to anyone but me. That prevents duplication without the property owner and/or residents permission.? Similarly, he recommends that homeowners avoid getting their security devices from generic sources like the hardware store. This is due to the fact that the products from such places are generally far more common than specialized counterparts. Intruders of one kind or another will likely be more familiar with ways to defeat the mechanisms of mass-market door locksets, but this is not the case with products that inhabit a niche of the lockset industry.

Fast Eddys Keys Express says, ?I take your safety and security very personally. I have seen too many home invasions. It?s very disturbing. Everything from simple home invasions with jewelry stolen, TVs, and Cars stolen out of the garage. And in worst cases, families crushed by murder. All because someone starts out wanting your property and thinks they can just take it.?

Fortunately, the company adds that their, ?passion is to help stop the anarchy and the damage to your life, homes and business. with real locksmith skills. Cost effective locksmith measures, such as better door locking hardware and/or rekeying your locks, can prevent break ins or, at the very least, slow them down. If need be, I can repair locks as well. As a result, you can take precautionary measures to protect yourself and your family. Time is of the essence, and we believe we can afford you this time.? Alternatively, they can help customers who find themselves locked out of their own homes, businesses, or vehicles gain entry to their properties once more.

Fast Eddys Keys Express is proud to share that they often receive 5-Star reviews from their customers through online platforms. On the Google Maps platform, for instance, Robert Debenedetti says that, ?Eddy is awesome! I?ve used him in the once in the past and then again recently. As before, he was able to accommodate me very quickly, his work is top-notch, and at a very reasonable price. He is my ?go-to? guy for any locksmith needs!?
