August 10, 2015 -
Miami, Florida based landscaping company, The Billy Goat, continues to be the top choice for residential and commercial lawn care throughout the South Florida area. The company has been providing landscaping services to home and businesses in Miami for more than eight years.

Danny, owner of The Billy Goat, is pleased with the response that they're received from their customers. "We do our best to provide all of our customers with services that they will appreciate. We're more than happy with the response that they've given us and we plan to only get better. We want our customers to know that they can rely on us for all of their landscaping needs."

The company specializes in landscape construction and installation, and has staff that is qualified to service everything from a standard home to a multi-million dollar commercial property. They carry $2 million general liability insurance.

In addition to standard landscaping Miami, the company provides mowing and other lawn maintenance, repair and installation of irrigation and artificial turf, as well as fertilizing, and tree trimming and removal.

"We love Danny and his staff," says one Miami homeowner. "We've used them for about five years now, and wouldn't dream of going anywhere else. They take such perfect care of our lawn and our neighbors are always complimenting us on our landscaping."

The company won the 2011 USCA Best of Local Business, Miami Award in Landscaping for exceptional marketing success in enhancing the positive image of small businesses through service to their community and customers. They were also awarded the Building of America Plaque of Honor for landscape installation done at Allamanda Elementary School in Palm Beach County. They were also featured in Ocean Drive Magazine in May, 2012.

"We use them for our commercial landscaping Miami and surrounding areas," says a business owner and customer. "Our customers are always remarking on how great our lawn looks."

The Billy Goat provides services throughout Miami and the South Florida area. Those interested in more information about this lawn mowing company Miami, can visit them on their official website.
