Mays Landing, New Jersey-based We Buy Houses South Jersey recently issued a public advisory about the variety of reasons why real estate owners cash out their NJ properties. The company explains that people who sell their homes for cash typically face major problems, such as foreclosure, inheritance issues, divorce, job relocation, and problems with bad tenants or illegal settlers.

As noted on the company?s website at https://www.webuyhousessouthjersey.com/, selling a problematic real estate to an investor is the best way to dispose of unwanted properties. They explain that a home with extensive damages, tax liens, and code violations is difficult to sell to private buyers since it comes with a lot of problems. Searching for a property investor like We Buy Houses South Jersey is the thing to do since the firm accepts all types of properties, regardless of their condition. The company?s spokesperson, Brian Rudderow, said, ?We buy houses in South Jersey in dilapidated condition and with bad tenants still inside, even if they haven?t been paying rent and need to be evicted. We will buy your property along with the problems that go with it. We?ll take care of everything because we are capable of solving all real estate problems with the help of our expert legal team which has years of experience in the industry.?

He also points out that they close in a short time-frame and offer property owners with some of the best rates in the market. Meanwhile, Rudderow also warns the general public about a number of investment companies in NJ who are notorious for making extremely low offers and then delaying the closing for weeks or even worse, not closing at all and completely backing out of the deal. On the other hand, those who wish to sell a house fast South Jersey can do so by contacting a trusted local real estate company like We Buy Houses South Jersey.

Rudderow also enumerates the benefits of selling a property to We Buy Houses South Jersey. Firstly, he explains that they accept all types of properties including those that cannot be sold by local realtors in NJ. He also states that the company will take care of the property cleanup and liquidation of any junk, trash, or leftover construction debris. Secondly, Rudderow points out that they are able to close instantly and pay in cash as soon as possible so that homeowners can immediately stop paying for monthly expenses including insurance, mortgage payments, utilities, taxes, and more. Thirdly, he asserts that there are no brokers or agents involved throughout the whole process and homeowners no longer have to pay for any listing fees or commissions on the sale of the property. Lastly, Rudderow states that they take care of everything including drafting all of the contracts and paperwork so that the seller will just simply sign the documents in exchange for the cash payment on the closing day.

?A lot of times we will meet local homeowners who are completely overwhelmed by their burdensome property and they don?t have the time, money, or resources to be able to deal with this type of situation. If that sounds like you then you are probably in a good scenario where you should at least consider selling your home to a trusted local home buyer such as We Buy Houses South Jersey,? Rudderow added.
