

PutskA Announces Diaper Caddy Organizer

December 11, 2019 -

Baby essentials supplier PutskA has recently announced that their diaper caddy is available for purchase. The company says, ?Anyone can get your diaper caddy from their website or from Amazon.? PutskA was founded after a couple had their second child, and, with all the experience of the first child under their belts, they knew exactly what kind of equipment would work for their kids and their family.

Since they knew they weren?t the only parents who wanted safe, sturdy, high quality baby gear, they began to sell their finds to other families who want the best for their children. They are committed to using non-toxic, organic and environmentally materials in their products whenever possible, and they focus on clean, simple, chic designs that are easy to use, easy to clean, look fantastic, and last through all the extra wear and tear that baby essentials experience on a day to day basis.

PutskA?s diaper caddy has lots of room and compartments for organization, making it much easier to store everything they need and keeping it ready to go whenever parents need to move the kids from their home to the nanny, grandparents, neighbors, or wherever else might be looking after the kiddos for a couple hours. Rather than need to pack a fresh bag and remember what needs to be packed every time the little ones leave the house, everything stays neatly organized in the caddy, allowing easy transitions for parents and giving temporary caretakers a chance to focus their attention where it?s needed most - taking care of precious children - rather than on trying to find the diapers and wipes when it?s time for a change.

Suggestions for using the caddy and examples of how to organize are available online, just check PutskA on FB. Not only is the caddy great for carrying all of baby?s supplies, it?s a great size for any standard changing table, and folds down for easy storage when the stable velcro T divider is removed from the main section of the caddy.

The PutskA diaper caddy has an average of 4.8 out of 5 stars on Amazon. A customer who identified themselves only as ARW recently left a review that read ?Prior to this purchase, I was using a shower caddy for my baby's items we keep in the living room. It was always disorganized, bulging, and looked out of place. This solved all those problems and more. There are so many pockets around the exterior and 3 large sections on the interior. We have her toys in one, pacifiers and lotion in another, and burp cloths, bibs, and wipes in the third. If we wanted, there is plenty of room for diapers and cream. The color is a light gray and the fabric is sturdy. I highly recommend this to any parent wanting to be more organized.? The diaper caddy also makes a great gift for baby showers, especially since it comes with two free bandana bibs and two pacifier clips, also manufactured with the same high commitment to quality shown in all of Putska?s products.

The diaper caddy is just one product in PutskA?s line of quality baby products. They also have a toilet training seat with a ladder that sits on top of most standard toilets and makes them more accessible to toddlers. With non-slip steps, sturdy handles and an extremely lightweight design, toddlers can place the seat on the toilet themselves and feel safe and secure when climbing and sitting on the seat all by themselves. This gives toddlers the confidence and independence they need to understand and begin to control their bathroom needs. Along with this seat and the caddy, PutskA also sells potty training guides, complete with stickers, pacifier clips and cute bandana bibs.
