Amherst, New York based BodyCandy.com has recently launched a new line of personalized tongue rings. BodyCandy is a popular provider of body jewelry, including tongue rings, belly button rings, nose rings, plugs, and cartilage jewelry. The new custom tongue rings are available to customers in three different colors and they can be personalized with a consumer's own photo or specified text.

Nicole Szymanski of BodyCandy.com released a statement about the new line, "We're excited to be able to offer our customers something completely unique. I mean, who does personalized tongue rings? BodyCandy does, of course, and it is really exciting to see these new products come into play. We are confident that our customers are going to really love this new line."

The new personalized tongue rings will be made from anodized titanium and steel and will cost $11.99 per barbell, which includes the chosen personalization. The custom tongue rings are included in a long line of body jewelry that BodyCandy offers.

The company offers a wide range of body jewelry that ranges from tongue rings and plugs to belly rings, earrings, nose rings, and a lot more. They are currently one of the most popular body jewelry websites in the nation, used by consumers as well as many commercial body piercing establishments.

"I'm definitely a fan," says Melinda, who owns a body piercing store in Georgia. "I order all of my body jewelry from BodyCandy. I mean, they offer great quality products and their selection is fabulous. My customers also love everything that I get from them."

BodyCandy's new personalized tongue rings are a relatively new concept to the body jewelry industry. Consumers wishing to purchase the custom rings will simply provide BodyCandy with their chosen image or text, which will be imprinted onto the tongue ring. "It's a fabulous idea," says Melinda. "I can't wait to see my first one."

BodyCandy offers weekly contests via their Facebook page. "'Like' our page to know about our weekly giveaways first!" requests Nicole Szymanski. "People can also see our customers wearing our jewelry on Instagram."
