

Unique Toiletry Bag For Men Becomes Favorite Gift for Travelers

December 17, 2019

December 17, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Bayfield Bags, a leading manufacturer of high-quality leather bags, is delighted to announce that their unique toiletry bag for men has become a favorite among those looking for the best gift for the men who travel.

Bob Dale of Bayfield Bags says, "Whether you or someone you know travels for business, uses the gym or is simply celebrating their first whiskers, our leather travel bag is perfect for their needs. The classic vintage design appeals to young and old users alike because it is built to last. When not in use, it folds flat for easy storage, rather than taking up space in a closet. Many women have said they love the look of the bag, so we're pretty sure some have thought about buying one for themselves too."

The classic leather toiletry bag has been updated inside to make it a handy carry-all for beard kits, as well as other shaving items, personal care products, and prescriptions. Available in a choice of black or brown leather, the special Amazon price gives this product an incredible value for those who want high quality which will last. The zip-around bottom with handy pockets makes sure everything stays organized. With reinforced double stitched seams and zippers built to last, it is a gift that is sure to stand the test of time, becoming an enduring testament to the care and generosity of the gift giver. Featuring the style, convenience and durability customers have come to expect from Bayfield Bags, the toiletry bag represents an extra special gift that will not go unappreciated.

One of the product's Amazon Customer reviews reflects this sentiment. Headlined "Wonderful. Fully recommend," the review says, "My husband loves it. Has already been put to use and has plenty of space for everything but doesn't look huge. It has little pockets for a clipper and such and zippered spaces as well. Also, the fact that it is made of leather seems to be a plus for my hubby. He says that it is very sturdy."

Dale has invited those on Facebook to connect with Bayfield Bags and provide their own reviews for their men's toiletry bags, stay abreast of their news and announcements and participate in the company's giveaways. Customers will be pleased to learn that the company recently made clear that they support military families with a portion of their profits, and they encourage all Americans to do the same in their own ways.

They were recently featured on the WBOC news site in an article which announced their leather laptop bags. In the article, Dale states, "Our goal is to create travel bags that would incorporate the durability you should expect and the functionality that you deserve. We understand that organization is important when you're traveling. You want to make sure you have everything you need while taking up as little space as possible. That's why we've designed our bags with compartments and pockets that can hold all of your travel essentials without overcrowding your luggage. Each of our bags is made from the highest quality leather or waxed canvas, meaning they'll hold up when you need them most. Traveling is already full of challenges and stress but, at Bayfield Bags, we believe that your travel bags shouldn't add to them. We designed our line to make travel a little bit easier."

In addition to their Amazon storefront, Bayfield Bags run their own webstore which showcases their full range of toiletry bags for women and men, including their ever-popular Dopp kit for men and travel accessories. They also provide a full range of backpack bags, briefcases and messenger bags, duffel bags and wallets and purses as well as a range of jewelry. There is no mistaking the high quality on any of their range, the kind of quality that is built to last a lifetime.

Those who plan to present a Bayfield Bag as a gift this holiday season are encouraged to order through the company's Amazon page to take advantage of the special prices offered as well as make sure that it arrives in time. Anyone who would like to explore Bayfield Bags' full range of products may explore their website, and they may sign up for the company's mailing list to stay abreast of their flash sales announcements. Bayfield Bags can also be found on Facebook.
