December 12, 2019

December 12, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Union City, CA- For the holiday season, Alpine Awards, an awards store in Union City, CA is featuring their custom gift options. Alpine Awards is featuring their two most popular custom gifts: engraved clocks and pins. They are announcing the new holiday feature for those in Union City that aren't sure what to get their family and friends for Christmas. Alpine Awards recommends heading into their union City location as soon as possible to begin orders so that they are completed in time for Christmas.

The first custom gift Alpine Awards is featuring this month for their clients in Union City are their custom engraved clocks. According to Alpine Awards, engraved clocks make a great gift for Christmas because of their timeless design, quality, and customizability.

Alpine Awards shared how determined they are to give their clients the best possible product and service. "We know that only the best will do for the people you wish to recognize," states Alpine Awards. "Our awards are made from only the best materials such as the finest American black walnut woods."

The second award the trophy store in Union City, CA is featuring this month is their custom pins and labels.

The featured pins and labels are customizable in many different shapes and colors. Alpine Awards also guarantees any inscription their client can think of can be put onto a pin. Since Christmas is just around the corner, Alpine Awards recommends holiday-themed pins that feature green or red.

Alpine Awards has been in business for nearly 50 years, serving the San Francisco Bay Area with great service and high-quality products. Many customers have shared their appreciation for Alpine Awards and the tremendous work they do.

One such customer is Meredith L., who had Alpine complete a large recognition gift order. She shares, "I turned to Alpine, and they took care of me! Totally worth the travel time to the bay area when you want things done right!?"
