January 06, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Handmade crafts business Swanky Crafts has announced that they have bridesmaids gifts available in the USA for next day delivery through Amazon Prime.

Shop owner and product crafter Janice Worsley designs and makes handmade bracelets on custom cards, which make excellent gifts for bridesmaids, mothers of the bride and groom, maids of honor, and flower girls, as well as non-wedding related gifts such as gifts for teachers and sweet 16 parties. Regardless of the occasion, Swanky Crafts makes beautiful products, which shows in the product reviews for the Swanky Crafts etsy store, which go all the way back to 2015. One customer, Chloe, recently wrote a review which says, "Bought this as a gift to my mum on my wedding day. She absolutely loved it- it brought her to tears! It's a beautiful bracelet, lovely quality and was exactly what I was looking for. Thank you so much. Definitely recommend."

Swanky Crafts puts customers first, which is also clearly reflected in their customer reviews. The shop has over 1000 product reviews, with an average of 5 stars, and many people chiming in a few words to say how they loved the product. One recent review, from a customer named Heather, reads, "These bracelets are precious. I ordered them for my maid of honor, jr. bridesmaids, and flower girls. Much to my surprise, the shop owner included one for me. We all wore them throughout the wedding weekend.? Another customer, Anne, writes, ?I got this for my mother in law as a gift on our wedding day. I was worried that it would be too small for her. The shop owner was so easy to work with on adding length and extenders. She was wonderful and my mother in law loved it!!? This review makes clear that Janice is willing to go the extra mile to make her customers happy. The reviews are publicly available so anyone can see what people are saying about Swanky Crafts. Janice also added, "Apart from the reviews which people have taken the time to write rather than just give stars, I get emails on a daily basis from brides who are so happy with their gifts, I cherish each one and love to hear their stories." This dedication to great products and excellent service has paid off, placing Swanky Crafts in the top 10% of Etsy shops worldwide.

The Bridesmaid Proposal bracelets are designed to look like a giant engagement ring, to play on the idea of the proposal with a ring. One style has a card with the wording, ?Now it?s my turn to pop the question - will you be my bridesmaid?? The gifts are also wrapped in unique handmade gift wrap, and can also be personalized to have whatever message the gifter wants to include. All a potential gifter needs to do is contact Janice Worsley about their requirements for the custom gift.

The business is located in and ships from the UK. For American customers who want to shop for bridesmaid proposal gifts, there is a limited stock available in Amazon?s warehouses, ready to be shipped quickly through Amazon Prime at no extra cost. This stock sells out quickly, so interested customers should not wait to purchase their favorites. Additional selection is also available on Etsy and on the Swanky Crafts website, and ships via the UK?s Royal Mail, which typically takes around a week to arrive internationally.

Janice concluded her announcement, saying, ?I am so excited to share Swanky Crafts with the world. Since its inception as a small Etsy shop in 2015, it has been an incredible journey to grow as a business, with many exciting moments. I have loved and appreciated every 5* review that has come in to my shop, and I?m looking forward to continuing to provide excellent quality handmade bracelets for brides to give to their bridesmaids for the foreseeable future."
