

Carpet Cleaning Store in Pensacola, FL Announces IICRC Certification

December 20, 2019

December 20, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pensacola, Fla- The Institute of Inspection Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC), has set standards and training for technicians looking to become certified in all types of floor cleaning and rug restoration. A carpet cleaning store in Pensacola, FL has announced that they now hold this renowned certification. This certification sets standards for cleaning and serving a multitude of different floor types.

One of the many things IICRC certification teaches the technician is how to restore rugs that may have extensive damage due to water or routine spills. Elizabeth Nims proudly states, "Elite Services Quality Clean is proud to announce if you have a rug that the colors have run into areas they should not be, they can correct that in most cases."

Elizabeth Nims is an IICRC Certified Master Textile Cleaning Technician and IICRC Certified Rug Cleaning Technician that specializes in color removal and correction.

"Elite Services Quality Clean is a WoolSafe Service Provider and knows how to take care of your priceless treasures," added Nims.

This rug cleaning in Pensacola, FL can be useful to residents as there can often be water damage in the area due to extreme weather. Rugs are an expensive piece of one's home that adds beauty and warmth. They are an investment most would like to keep. The services offered by Elite Services Quality Clean allows their to keep their rugs at a high-quality color for years to come so they can continue to bright up their space.
