Pensacola, Fla.- Three staff members of Beltone Hancock Hearing Care Centers, a hearing aid center in Pensacola, FL, worked with a local organization, East Pensacola Heights Lions Club, to donate over $200 worth of children's coloring books, crayons, and stuffed animals to this cause to try and boost the children's positivity during the sometimes-sad holiday season. Sacred Heart Children's Hospital accepts donations for the sick children in their care who won't be able to fully enjoy themselves, as they normally would, this holiday season.

The East Pensacola Heights Lions Club is a local community non-profit. The chapter is known to create and foster a spirit of understanding among the peoples of the world. To promote the principles of good government and good citizenship. Howard and Margaret Hancock, owners of Beltone Hancock Hearing Care Center of Pensacola, as well as team member Misti Hall, are active members of the chapter.

Howard Hancock says, "It is with special pleasure that several of us work with the local East Pensacola Heights Lions Club where we are involved in a number of activities that serve the underprivileged of the Pensacola area. I am a Past President of this club and past Zone Chairman for this area. Misti Hall [Patient Care Coordinator in the Beltone Hancock Hearing Care Center in Pensacola] and I both serve on the Board of Directors for the Pensacola Lions Sight Clinic alongside representatives of all the local Lions Clubs where we serve the sight needs of those in need for this area.?

The team not only aims to help children in need for the holidays, but they also provide quality and affordable hearing aids to Pensacola and the surrounding areas. Beltone's expert team of hearing specialists that offer free hearing screenings to ensure that each patient's hearing is up to par. Then they fit the hearing aids to each individual so that they are suitable and comfortable. Beltone Hancock Hearing Care Center provides quality services for any hearing needs.

Beltone Hancock Hearing Care Center of Pensacola receives plenty of praise, such as these kind words from Durwin Unruh, "The staff at Beltone are very accommodating. Every visit is a pleasure and I have always been very happy with the outcome. After several years of wearing hearing aids I would definitely recommend them to my friends."

This hearing aid store in Pensacola, FL provides quality care and takes part in many charity events such as this Sacred Heart Children's Hospital holiday donation drive. The staff takes pride in donating to this charity, knowing that it warms the hearts of many children who may otherwise not have gotten to take part in the joys of the holiday season.
