Miami, Florida: A local awards store is introducing custom framing in Miami, Florida just after the holiday season. After the holiday season plenty of people in the community received gifts, they would like to treasure forever. Awards Trophy World is reminding the local community that framing their valuables is the best we to keep them in mint condition. Custom framing also allows valuables to be displayed in the home.

Custom framing options are numerous. Awards Trophy World offers framing for garments, such as signed jerseys from one's favorite sports team. They offer shadow box framing for keepsakes from their client's loved ones that may not lay flat, along with frames for medals, posters, and canvases.
