The Mortgage Bureau Offers Buy To Let Mortgages In Cambridge

January 09, 2020

January 09, 2020 -
Cambridge, England based mortgage broker The Mortgage Bureau is pleased to announce that they provide buy to let mortgage services in Cambridge and the surrounding areas. The company has been delivering advice to their clients that spanned the whole mortgage market since its inception in 1990.

According to the Mortgage Bureau, ?buy-to-let? is a British phrase that refers to the purchase of a property with the intent to let out, i.e. to rent it out. A buy-to-let mortgage is a mortgage specifically designed for this purpose. Usually, buy-to-let properties are residential in nature, but the term can also encompass student property investments and hotel room investments.

Andrew Masterson, a spokesperson for The Mortgage Bureau, says, ?When you buy a property as an investment, there is a small problem in that you won?t be allowed to fund your purchase with a normal residential mortgage. Instead, you will need to apply for a specialist buy-to-let mortgage. Here, there is good news and bad news. The good news is that there are lots of deals out there, whether you?re a first-time landlord, an ?accidental? landlord, or an experienced investor. The bad news, however, is that the rules around buy-to-let mortgages can be a bit of a minefield. With the help of our company, however, you have nothing to worry about if you want to buy a property with buy to let mortgages in Cambridge.?

According to Masterson, The Mortgage Bureau builds long term relationships with its clients by providing independent advice. Masterson says, ?Only by being independent of all lenders is it possible to find the very best mortgage products, and being independent also means that we can change providers if a better deal becomes obvious during the term of an existing loan. Very few mortgage advisers are independent of both lenders and estate agents, and The Mortgage Bureau is proud to say that our company counts among that elite few!?

He continues, ?As a result, we are able to ensure that client information remains confidential. We don?t share office space or systems with any estate agents who may have different vested interests. You are our only client, and as such, there is no conflict of interest. We are able to ensure that all of our clients can negotiate the very best price on their house purchase.? The Mortgage Bureau has branches across England in addition to Cambridge, in locations such as London, Milton Keynes, Norwich, Kings Lynn, Bury St Edmunds, Peterborough, and Ely.

The services provided by The Mortgage Bureau have earned the company an excellent reputation. On Google, the company?s Cambridge branch has a perfect rating of 5 out of 5 Stars. In a recent review, Jonathan Leach shares his experiences with the company, saying, ?I made my appointment with their friendly receptionist and turned up at their smart offices in Cambridge. Andrew met me and ran through all the compliance issues before undertaking a full fact-find. He then provided me with really good advice from across the whole market, rather than being restricted like my previous mortgage was. I ended up making quite a big saving, and can't thank The Mortgage Bureau enough.?

In another review, Tony Willows says, ?I have used the services of The Mortgage Bureau several times over the years and also recommended friends and family who have also been happy. Independent Mortgage Advice from a friendly team with fast and efficient service! Thank you! We'll be back!? Similarly, Allison Skipper?s review says, ?Fantastic. Andrew was so incredibly helpful, and nothing was too much trouble. I will definitely recommend The Mortgage Bureau to friends and family. Very trustworthy and always had time for us. Thank you.?
