Traverse City-based real estate agent Amber Cyman is pleased to announce that she and her team have just opened a new office. Their agency, Amber Cyman Real Estate, is excited to be able to provide high-level marketing for sellers who are interested in getting the most out of the value of their home. Amber Cyman knows the Traverse City housing market better than most, and she and her team look forward to making use of Amber?s great skill as a negotiator to secure great deals for all their Traverse City clients.

?I am a very detailed Realtor who loves what I do and gets to know each client on a personal level so I can better assist you in your real estate transaction,? Amber says on their website. ?I market every property I list as much as possible and reach as many buyers as I am able in order to get your property sold for top dollar. I never stop thinking outside the box and truly care about every single client I have. Your trust and your consideration mean the world to me. I will exceed your greatest expectations. As a proud Realtor, I am looking forward to helping you with your real estate needs!?

The agency offers a lot of the same services one would typically find at any real estate agency but also does much more in order to facilitate better experiences for their clients and set themselves apart from their peers. Amber has, over the course of her years as a real estate agent, built up a great deal of knowledge about the industry. Any agent can negotiate, but it takes a certain amount of knowledge and experience to truly get the best offers. She has a particular knack for negotiation, and she uses this knowledge and experience to help her clients get the best deals.

Amber has come to be known as the a top-performing female Real Estate Agent in Traverse City, MI. ?When it comes to male-dominated industries, one that regularly tops the list is real estate,? says Amber. According to some estimates, the industry is over 55% male, with nearly 80% of all senior positions also being held by men. In an industry so heavily dominated by men, few women manage to stand out?and Amber Cyman is quite proud to be one of them. Amber also works with her husband Jesse, who is a proud military veteran.

Amber stated, "We work with so many V.A. loans because we know how the process works. We are proud to serve those who have served us all."

Buying or selling a piece of property can be exciting, especially for first time buyers and sellers, but it can also be incredibly stressful, especially if one does not know exactly what they are doing. Figuring out what all the complicated documents signify and trying to negotiate with experienced buyers or sellers can result in one walking away either empty-handed or with a bad deal. Amber Cyman strives to help her clients avoid this, and she encourages all interested parties to get in touch with her if they need a real estate agent in Traverse City.

Some of Amber?s clients have been so pleased that they left rave reviews of her work on multiple platforms. One such client says in their 5-Star Google review, ?Amber is a top-notch real estate agent. I would certainly recommend using her to help you buy or sell your home if you live in Traverse City or the surrounding areas. She has shown that she knows the Northern Michigan housing market extremely well. As a buyer?s agent as well as a seller?s agent, Amber Cyman is a fantastic real estate agent. Another review from a client on Facebook says, ?Amber is very professional and hardworking. She is quick to respond and got us scheduled quickly for property showing. In a heated market where many buyers can't find a property, Amber helped us find a home in a perfect location. She knows the area and the industry well. She expertly guided us in making offers and negotiating. She was very patient the whole time and made sure we were comfortable with decisions. She made timely and critical suggestions that helped us win against multiple other bids. I thank God I crossed paths with Amber. Highly recommended without any hesitation!?
