

Michael Taggart Shocks Crowd at HUSH VIP Event

August 12, 2015

August 12, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

On August 14th, 2015, Michael Taggart, CEO of Adventure Marketing and co-founder of Press Advantage, spoke to the crowd at HUSH VIP in a training session where he discussed building your authority using new cutting edge techniques. The attendees listened intently as he discussed key SEO strategies on how to build your media authority and online presence. Those in the audience made sure they set a time to attend his breakout session on Saturday, where he would be unveiling more content on brand authority and PR.

The focus of this HUSH VIP event was generating traffic and revenue using the internet and other marketing platforms. Many in the audience were looking for solutions to getting more customers, as well as to generate publicity and increase visibility for their businesses using Search Engine Optimization. Michael Taggart has always been on the forefront of SEO and Online Marketing. He has trained thousands of business owners over the last 10 years on how to build their company into a 7 Figure business. Michael has been asked to speak at multiple prestigious conferences including GKIC, Traffic and Conversion, and more.

After his presentation, audience members were shocked at the tactics presented. Those who were truly business savvy knew that they needed to attend Michael's Breakout Session on Saturday to learn more. They quickly went to sign-up and secure their spots for Saturday's Breakout Sessions. One attendee stated that he has been looking for this type of training and service to be able to propel his business to the next level of success.

Michael Taggart spoke at HUSH previously this year at their event in Las Vegas. He was invited back to speak in Orange County based on his knowledge of internet marketing, driving traffic, and his ability to help students achieve success in their own businesses.
