Company President Jeff Oestreich is Proud to Announce Another Goldrush Getaways Award

February 01, 2020

February 01, 2020 -
Goldrush Getaways has just announced that they have received the 2019 Rocky Mountaineer award for Sales Excellence Award. This premier host travel agency was given the award for exceeding sales projections for 2019. Carson Hobart from Rocky Mountaineer stopped by Goldrush Getaways Citrus Heights, California office in person to present the award to company president Jeff Oestreich.

Oestreich shared these thoughts about receiving the Rocky Mountaineer award, ?We here at Goldrush Getaways take our job very seriously. We help people plan their vacations to relax and recover from the stress of everyday life. For many, these are the most important weeks of the year. I ask my staff to be totally committed every day to be the best travel advisor team possible. When we receive an award like this from one of our vendors, it shows that the effort we put into our jobs is paying off. It?s an honor to be recognized for our hard work and an even bigger honor that Rocky Mountaineer representative Carson Hobart felt the need to stop by and present their award in person. I proud of my staff?s dedication to their craft and I have a feeling that this will not be the last time we receive this award or others like it.?

The company that presented the 2019 award to Goldrush Getaways is a respected Canadian travel vendor. Rocky Mountaineer assists travelers in planning scenic train trips across the Canadian Rockies. Many who have taken these trips describe them as an extraordinary train travel experience. The company representative says their service is very popular because traveling across the Rockies by train is the only way to take in all the dramatic scenery in this isolated part of the country. For many years now, they have selected a travel company that they work with on a regular basis to receive their Sales Excellence Award. Hobart said it is given out annually to a company they feel has gone above and beyond normal travel industry standards when working with them.

The recipient of the 2019 Rocky Mountaineer Sales Excellence Award, Goldrush Getaways, is a unique travel business. Oestreich says they do not book trips directly with the general public. Instead, they assist people who want to become travel agents with their award-winning, host-travel agency model. He says those that become members with them are given all the tools that they need to be successful as an independent travel agent. Their travel assistance connections include cruise lines, air and train travel, specialized vacation packages, and more. The president of the company went on to add that besides earning generous commissions on the trips that their travel advisors? book for people, they often receive discounted vacations for themselves and other associated travel perks. The company has a history of travel assistance success that dates back to 1996.

The company president also said that in addition to the many awards they have received such as the 2019 Rocky Mountaineer Award for Sales Excellence, they also have an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau and are accredited by the International Association of Travel Agents Network (IATAN).

Oestreich went on to point out that they not only work well with their travel partners, but they also have a great rapport with their travel advisor members. A testament to that is the many great reviews for Goldrush Getaways.

Mari E. had this to say about her experience using the travel assistance services that Goldrush Getaways offers their members, ?I have been with Goldrush Getaways since 2008. I have booked some great vacations and received wonderful service from Goldrush Getaways, as well as discounts and commission on top of that. The staff is wonderful; they have helped me so much in getting started the travel Industry."
