Portland, Ore. - Throughout the year of 2019, Express Healthcare Professionals of Portland, OR, quickly became Oregon?s healthcare staffing leader of Per Diem and CNA jobs, CNA II?s and LPN?s. An important aspect of the Portland healthcare agency gaging their success is determining what positively impacted their clients and associates most and celebrating the triumphs of the previous year.

As an example of their proficiency, the healthcare provider was able to hire and place 286 new employees over the course of 2019. The accredited team of healthcare staffing professionals has over 100 years of combined experience in credentialing and placing competent clinical staff to support hospitals, long term care facilities, treatment centers and clinics with Per Diem, Contract and Direct Hire clinical staff.

Express Healthcare Professionals hired and placed only the best clinical professionals, resulting in the issuance of just under 9,000 paychecks over the past year. Due to their successes in Portland healthcare staffing, Express Healthcare has been awarded the prestigious Certification of Healthcare Staffing Services gold seal of approval from the Joint Commission and has been a Joint Commission certified staffing firm since 2014.

In addition to their dedicated service to associates, they have a longstanding positive reputation with clients in their community. Developed and managed by the Northwest?s most experienced and professional healthcare staffing experts, with over 75 years of healthcare experience, Express Healthcare Professionals welcomed the opportunity to assist clients with short-term, long-term and permanent clinical hiring needs. Over the previous year, the local nurse staffing agency brought on and serviced an impressive 83 new client partners.
