Nationwide tour operator, US Coachways, wants groups that are traveling to Baltimore to consider the benefits of doing it with one of their many rental bus options. They say that a Baltimore Bus Rental can provide for a more fun and relaxing experience for groups that want to take in the sights of this exciting East Coast City.

Company CEO Ed Telmany, had this to say about the subject, "Baltimore is a city that has a lot to offer people that travel there. Our rental buses have the ability to give groups traveling to Baltimore a more stress-free experience that includes some room to get up and move around as they travel. Everyone on the tour bus will also be able to partake in alcoholic beverages because there is no need for any designated drivers. Our drivers are courteous and professional and they know the best ways to get in and out of the city even at peak traffic times. They also know where the best sights and the top places to eat in Baltimore are."

He also mentioned that another benefit of taking a tour bus into the city is people can leave backpacks and other items right on the bus as they take in the sights and sounds of the city. The company's bus drivers are also instructed to keep their tour buses locked at all times when the group is away and they have to stay with the bus too.

Telmany also added that group bus travel illuminates parking worries that can sometimes be a big problem in Baltimore. He says for a group that consists of 20 to 30 people they would have to bring at least 5 large size vehicles to get everyone there comfortably. Finding that many parking spaces can take a long time if they can be found at all. He says this will also cost at least $25 per car which could be put to better use towards a bus rental. This is especially true when people consider what they will save on gas too.

The company spokesperson mentioned that those groups on a tour to Baltimore will also get door to door service. That means people can take in more sights in the city because there is no time loss walking several blocks throughout the day. He pointed out this can be especially helpful for groups of senior citizens who may have some members with partial disabilities. Telmany also pointed out that for those going to Baltimore at night, this will also make for a safer tour experience.

Those who want to rent a bus for their group's travel to Baltimore will have many choices of vehicles to do that in. Telmany said that most people are amazed at the diversity that is found in their US Coachways fleet. He says there is a different type of vehicle to suit everyone's group size, traveling style, and budget. Their website even features a convenient cost calculator on what a bus rental might cost. The spokesperson says that for large groups of 49 ? 57 people, they feature both tour buses and school buses. The company's school buses are plain but comfortable and are also more budget-friendly, while at the same time the tour buses come equipped with all the bells and whistles to create a very unique travel experience. Telmany says for groups of 24 ? 35 passengers they also have several minibuses to select from. These minibuses come complete with high-back reclining bucket seats, custom climate control, high-end CD players, and ample storage space. He says they have not forgotten about small groups either which can take advantage of their 15-person max sprinter buses.

Telmany says that their buses can be used for travel to Baltimore for other purposes besides just touring the city. They are a great way to travel to attend sporting events, shows, and concerts. He says many people also use their Baltimore rental bus services to get to weddings in the city, have a fun and safe bachelor party or attend any type of special business event that is held there. The spokesperson said it does not matter what reason that a group needs to go to Baltimore, they are more than happy to accommodate them.

He added that all of their rental bus options are described in more detail on their website at <https://www.uscoachways.com/>.
