January 30, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Vitamins Keratin Hair Mask Deep Conditioner from Vitamins Hair Cosmetics has been found to be the best hair mask for damaged hair. People who have used this moisturizing protein hair mask have observed that it is able to repair split ends and is able to revive damaged dry hair. The result is soft, smooth, shiny, and health hair. It has also been found to restore vitality to heat and environmentally damaged hair. It is also able to provide long lasting hydration and scalp and cuticle repair.

Eyal Tamir, Business Development & Export Manager for Vitamins Hair Cosmetics, says, "Those who have damaged, dry, bleached, colored, permed hair may want to try the Vitamins Keratin Hair Mask Deep Conditioner. It has been found to be compatible with thin to normal hair and it is primarily designed for softening hair and tests have revealed that it has a high antioxidant effect and very high moisturizing effects."

The Vitamins Keratin Hair Mask Deep Conditioner is a hair care product that has been ensured to be free from parabens and sulfates. It makes use of a natural blend containing Moroccan argan oil, keratin extract, wheat germ oil, and vitamin E. It has also been observed to provide frizz control and to protect against breakage and to have a hair detangling effect. It has been specifically designed to provide deep hair conditioning and to hydrate, rejuvenate, and strengthen damaged, dry, or dull hair in order to make it smooth, soft, healthy, and shiny.

Another product that may also complement the Vitamins Keratin Hair Mask Deep Conditioner is a hair serum for frizzy hair, known as the Vitamins Hair Serum Keratin Protein Treatment. This has been specifically designed to be a highly moisturizing hair protein therapy. As such it is able to help in the repair of split ends found on brittle dull hair. It is composed of an herbal oils complex that have the capability to protect the hair from dust and humidity. By using this keratin hair serum, people can transform frizzy or coarse hair into healthy and smooth hair with less tangles.

The Vitamins Hair Serum Keratin Protein Treatment has been observed to be compatible with all types of hair. It has also been found to have a very high antioxidant effect and high moisturizing effects. It also has the ability to repair damaged, dry, colored, permed, and bleached hair. This keratin hair serum has been enriched with Moroccan argan oil and keratin protein, and supplemented with vitamin E and wheat germ oil. The effect of these ingredients is to provide to control frizz and restore elasticity, vitality, and flexibility to the hair strands.

This keratin hair serum has been noted to protect the hair such that there is a reduction in split ends caused by dryers and straighteners and minimization of hair breakage. In contrast to other kinds of hair serum, it is water based so that it is non-greasy. This hair product has also been assured not to contain any parabens, sulfate, or alcohol.

Another keratin product from Vitamins Hair Cosmetics that complements the Vitamins Keratin Hair Mask Deep Conditioner is a keratin shampoo for hair care. This is the Vitamins Keratin Shampoo Hair Protein Treatment product. It is designed to clean and moisturize hair, while also providing a volumizing effect. It can also get the hair clean, smooth and sleek, while offering gentle protection from damage by chlorine, chemicals, and humidity. It can also provide daily hydration for all types of hair, whether it is color treated, colored, thin, thick, fine, bleached, straight, or curly. It contains keratin and argan oil for deeply hydrating, moisturizing, and improving hair texture, with the result that dull and frizzy hair is transformed into silky, healthy, and beautiful hair.
