Fort Wayne, IN Roofing Contractor Now Offers Lifetime Transferable Non-Prorated Limited Warranties

February 03, 2020

February 03, 2020 -
Fort Wayne, Indiana based Perfect Steel Solutions is pleased to announce they now offer a lifetime transferable, non-prorated limited warranty. In summary, this entails Lifetime workmanship coverage for the original purchaser/property owner and fifteen (15) years for the succeeding owner. Perfect Steel Solutions agrees to repair or replace, free of charge, any shingles, installed ridge vent, underlayment, roof accessories or chimney flashing that is found to be defective or improperly installed.

The company built their reputation on the efforts of a team that goes above and beyond to get the job done right, backed by some of the most trusted brand names in the industry. Speaking on behalf of Perfect Steel Solutions, Austin Fain says, ?We truly offer and provide coverage for life on your roof, based on the premises of the original installation. Customer service is important to us, as everything we do is based upon the four main principles that we strive to keep in mind every day, on every project. Quality, integrity, loyalty and family are at the core of who we are and everything we do.?

With their free in-home estimates, those looking to replace their current roof with one that will last 40-70 years can explore the company?s wide range of styles, types and colors. These roofs also utilize some of the most eco-friendly options available, requiring little to no maintenance and easy care. In addition, they reflect solar heat, which can reduce cooling costs by 10% to 25%. Those who are considering selling their property in the near future will be pleased to learn that metal roofs can increase the resale value and lower insurance rates as well.

Perfect Steel Solutions reveals that metal roofs, with their ability to be installed right over a previous roofing system, are the most pragmatic solution to virtually any customer?s situation. With a near perfect score on Google from over 125 reviews, it is clear their customers agree. For instance, Melissa Becker says, ?This company is amazing! From start to finish, everything was smooth and easy, and my roof has now withstood several storms and strong winds wonderfully! Highly recommended!?

Alicia Slone, who also gave the company top marks on Google, says, ?My husband and I worked closely with

Noah and had a positive experience getting a steel roof installed on our house and garage. We didn?t feel pressured and loved the lifetime warranty. We had our job completed within two weeks of paperwork and love how much better our home looks! We would recommend your services to any new customer!?

Perfect Steel Solutions values the feedback that each of their customers has taken the time to leave online. With their Lifetime Transferable Non-Prorated Limited Warranties, the company is bound to be one of the first three companies to be called for competitive quotes from the best roofing contractor Fort Wayne, IN. The same principle that led them to provide access to the best brands available and offer expert installers underpins all their services and customer support efforts as well.

Many of their reviews function as evidence that Perfect Steel Solutions gives that same care and attention to their full range of services, including the installation of some of the toughest windows available, as well as guttering and gutter guard services. On Facebook, feedback from Shirley Robb-Carpenter highlights the commitment and high quality customer service Perfect Steel Solutions delivers to all their customers. In her review, Shirley says, ?Perfect Steel Solutions did a wonderful job of installing my new windows. The installers arrived on time; they were very efficient, courteous and polite. My windows look great, don't have any drafts and are easy to clean. The guys were awesome. They had a routine and worked together so well. They never stopped for lunch or anything else. They did a great job of cleaning up the old windows, and they cleaned my yard of anything they might have dropped. They even offered to vacuum my carpets. Great group of people. Everyone I met, from the first visit to the window installation, seemed to care about what I wanted and explained every little detail of what was to be done. If anyone needs windows, a roof or whatever they offer, you should try Perfect Steel Solutions. You will never meet a more perfect group of men.?
