"We are proud to be designated as a top-rated BBB Accredited Business," says Daniel D?Ambrosio, Owner of SC Home Offer. "In today's world, it is imperative that our customers know how seriously we take our commitment to excellence in providing options for homeowners to sell a house. Achieving BBB accreditation exemplifies our dedication to that goal."

The Better Business Bureau rating is based on an in-depth review of many different aspects of SC Home Offer?s business practices and reflects the company's ongoing efforts to provide homeowners with an alternative option when selling a house, mobile home, and land throughout Greenville, SC.

As with all businesses accredited by the BBB, SC Home Offer LLC must adhere to the BBB's "Code of Business Practices," a comprehensive set of policies, procedures and best practices on how businesses treat consumers. ?Our families live and work right here in the Greenville area. This makes the importance and urgency of showing genuine interest in all of the people we meet and work with. We treat our clients with the respect and dignity that they deserve. In the event that we are not able to close a deal and purchase a property, we will still be more than happy to give solid advice and suggestions on the best ways to continue to help sell the property as quickly as possible Listing a home isn?t a good fit for everyone, and having the option to choose to sell to a local cash home buyer such as SC Home Offer is an excellent option, especially for sellers who are searching for a fast, painless, quick method to liquidate their property without having to invest any time or money out of their own pocket.? D?Ambrosio says.

Investment companies like SC Home Offer LLC will buy homes in as-is condition even if they have several expensive problems that must be taken care of before the home can be listed and sold through traditional marketing channels. For example, a property could need a new roof, updated kitchen, and bathrooms, new siding, new appliances, new flooring, or even other more expensive repairs like foundation stabilization or septic problems. Property owners who want to be able to cash out and get an instant offer for their home without having to first remedy these issues will certainly benefit from being able to sell their problematic Greenville homes quickly without investing any more funds into the rehabilitation of the property.
