

Hearing Center in Lawrenceville, GA is Announcing Award Winning Beltone Amaze Hearing Aids

January 28, 2020

January 28, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lawrenceville, Ga. - A national hearing center, Beltone, is excited to announce a new premier product. The Beltone Amaze hearing aid has recently won the Business Intelligence Group's Big Innovation Award for 2020. The Beltone Amaze is offered at the Beltone hearing center in Lawrenceville, GA offering groundbreaking technology not previously used in the hearing aid world.

The Business Intelligence Group holds the award each year for organizations around the globe to submit top recent innovations. The winner is chosen by business executives and top leaders that volunteer their knowledge and experience to select a winner each year. This year's winner, the Beltone Amaze, is life-changing for millions.

The new hearing aid uses sound streaming from the Android operating system allowing the user to stream sounds of other Android systems, such as phone calls and music. With 75 percent of today's mobile users owning Android systems, the new technology will open a new world of possibilities for hearing aids in Lawrenceville, GA.

?We are thrilled to be honoring Beltone as they are leading by example and making real progress on improving the daily lives of so many,? stated the chief operating officer of the Business Intelligence Group, Maraia Jimenez.
