

Rockwell Trading is Turning 15

January 28, 2020

January 28, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Markus Heitkoetter, the founder of Rockwell Trading is celebrating the company's 15 Year Anniversary, this upcoming Wednesday, January 29th.

To commemorate Rockwell Trading's Birthday, Markus has announced he will be hosting a special broadcast through YouTube Live on Wednesday at 3:00 pm Central Time.

As sort of a reverse Birthday tradition, he has promised to give away a lot of Rockwell Trading S.W.A.G during the broadcast.

Since the company first formed in 2005, Markus and Rockwell Trading have provided educational courses and training materials to over 300,000 traders across the globe in more than a dozen countries.

Just last year, Markus was flown out to China to give a discussion on stock trading to a massive crowd on a luxury cruise ship.

Rockwell Trading is well known for their incredibly popular, free live in-person Stock Trading Bootcamps, that they host every month in multiple cities across the U.S.

If the name Rockwell Trading or Markus Heitkoetter is ringing any bells, it could also be because in their 15 year history he's release 2 best selling trading books and then this past November he released his third book, The PowerX Strategy.

Markus has promised to give out free copies of The PowerX Strategy to a few attendees during the YouTube live broadcast on Wednesday (the 29th).

He's set up a registration page here to attend:

For those interested in trading or in just trying to score some free Rockwell Trading gear, Markus says it seems like it will be a birthday event worth attending.
