January 30, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The first issue for 2020 of the most comprehensive guide to Hilton Head and Bluffton area real estate, rentals, and lifestyle is now available online.

The digital version of the January to February 2020 issue of Lowcountry Living & Real Estate magazine of Hilton Head 360 features the Berkeley Hall, a top private golf community in Bluffton, SC, on its cover. It can be viewed on the website of the topnotch Marketing Agency In South Carolina, <https://www.hiltonhead360.com>.

This year's first issue of the magazine features how to plan a Hilton Head vacation this 2020. It showcases the various vacation rental homes and properties and places to see in Hilton Head, SC. Also featured on this issue is the upscale waterfront community of Sun City Riverbend. It promotes some beautiful locations in Riverbend, and other activities to do there.

Also highlighted in the issue are the works of some notable realtors in SC. In the story "Realtors Making a Difference in Your Community," good deeds of the members of the Hilton Head Area Association of Realtors were the focus. From donating school supplies to organizing blood drives, these are just some of the commendable works of the local realtors highlighted in the magazine.

Hilton Head 360 subscribers can also read the feel-good story of the group Pockets of Sunshine inside Lowcountry Living and Real Estate magazine. The organization creates programs for adults with disabilities in SC to promote inclusivity. The establishment of the Joe Harden Lighthouse Award is also discussed inside the pages of the Best Media Company in Bluffton, SC. Those interested in tax information in Hilton Head, Bluffton, and Okatie area can also check the magazine.

The magazine, formerly known as Island Real Estate Magazine is published by local owners and residents Dan and Deborah Monroe.
