February 03, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Homeowners, investors, and vacationers are now all eyes on Hilton Head Island in the warm state of South Carolina.

According to top real estate company Charles Sampson of Charter One Realty, more people are now choosing to move to Hilton Head Island to enjoy the spectacular quality of life on the island, especially those who prefer its warm environment.

Once hailed as America's favorite island by international publication, Travel & Leisure Magazine, it's no wonder why Hilton Head Island is chosen by many as their dream home. The international magazine gave Hilton Head Island the distinction as the World's Best Island Award in 2017 & 2018. In the same year, it received the Reader's Choice Awards from another international magazine, Conde Nast Traveler.

"So many people move here from all over the world to get away from the cold and to enjoy a spectacular quality of life," Charles Sampson of Charter One Realty, an Award Winning Real Estate Agency in Hilton Head Island, SC states.

Charles Sampson of Charter One Realty also shares about "the Hilton Head lifestyle" people are clamoring. According to the realty expert, this lifestyle is all about what the island community is offering.

Hilton Head offers 12 miles of beautiful beaches, along with exquisite dining, shopping, and family activities. The beach is just minutes away from most homes. Aside from these, there are also world-class golf courses, at least 350 tennis courts, 50 miles of bike trails, and horseback riding paths in the vicinity, showcasing how vibrant the community life there is.

Apart from its continual mild climate, what makes Hilton Head Island an even better option is the fact that it's in South Carolina. SC enjoys the 5th lowest property tax rate in the nation.

For those already eyeing a home or a property in Hilton Head Island, the best people who could help are the realty experts from Charles Sampson of Charter One Realty. They offer Hilton Head Real Estate Relocation Services For Families and Businesses. Through the help of the real estate firm, anyone can easily find homes ranging from luxury beachfront estates to comfortable condos and villas with maintenance costs that will work with their budget.
