CA based Newman Windows and Doors - Irvine is pleased to let homeowners and businesses in the area know about the availability of their window replacement services. The company has the equipment and tools needed to help property owners keep their homes or businesses' windows in good condition. The company is also willing to offer guarantees on their work and has been well received by their many clients in Irvine. Anyone who owns a piece of property is well aware of the great importance of ensuring that their windows are in great condition. Should a window sustain irreparable damage, it should be repaired immediately.

"For many years, we at Newman Windows and Doors have dedicated our service to members of the Orange County Community," says the company. "We offer top quality products at affordable prices. We are well known for our dedication to customer satisfaction. We work on the premise that the customer comes first. If you need new or replacement windows, we will be happy to provide a free in-home estimate and explain the options that are available."

Those who have been searching for window replacement services can finally end their search by picking Newman. The company has been replacing windows and doors since 1993. Since there are so many other companies to choose from that perform the same tasks in the area, Newman strives to offer more than any of their competitors. Over 60% of their business is from repeat or referral business, and this is because the company takes pride in taking care of their customers. Learn more here: Window Replacement Near Me.

Since opening in 1993, the company has learned what it takes to earn and keep over 25,000 customers' business. They state, "As a family-owned company with an outstanding reputation, you can trust that Newman Windows and Doors will deliver the superior customer service you should expect. We will be around long after the job is complete to ensure your complete satisfaction." The company also has multiple awards, a subject on which they state, "We have awards upon awards that validate the good job we're doing" although we consider each customer's own perception as our only measurement. If you're not satisfied, we're not satisfied."

The company's commitment to customer service can be seen in what they refer to as the "Newman Advantage." The Newman Advantage ensures that each individual customer is treated as though they were the only customer. Every customer that walks in is given 100% of the company's attention, and their project is handled as if it were the only one under the company's purview. Customers are also guaranteed value for their money. Newman was built on the principle of value and makes it a point to avoid any and all forms of price gouging. They offer only the best quality service and use the best quality products in their service.

Newman installers must undergo extensive in-house training and certification before they are allowed to make house calls in order to ensure that they will uphold the standards of quality work and customer service the company has come to be known for. A number of customers have left great reviews online praising the company's services as a result of this dedication to superior service. One 5-Star Google review states, "Shane was Mr. Incredible on our windows and doors home improvement. Very knowledgeable, honest and provided professional guidance to our needs. Would definitely recommend Shane (Newman Windows and Doors) to anyone and will definitely be recommending my family to give Shane a call. Thanks, Shane, we are overjoyed, and our home looks amazing!"

Another similarly satisfied customer in a review that can be found on the company's website says they delivered, "A professional and satisfactory job. We live in Rancho Carlsbad Park and had 10 windows replaced in an older home. We are extremely pleased with our new windows, and the fact that they had to come back twice because we were remodeling and they had to wait for us to finish some of the plastering is a great benefit. Each time, we were treated very professionally and the installers were great. We highly recommend this company."
