

Universal Consciousness Festival - A Rocky Mountain Healing & Wellness Event

August 20, 2015

August 20, 2015 -

Announcing the Universal Consciousness Festival on September 11-14, 2015, at the Dao House retreat lodge in Estes Park, Colorado. The four day Universal Consciousness Festival - Health & Wellness Event will feature lectures and workshops, with a variety of alternative health experts. The festival is founded on the principle of maintaining a healthy lifestyle to live a long and fulfilling life.

The festival brings together world renowned experts sharing a variety of ancient healing knowledge and techniques, with a diverse and exciting array of performances.

Kristina Naldjian, spokesperson for the Universal Consciousness Festival, encourages those interested to reserve their event pass soon, "We are very excited to once again be featuring exceptional guest speakers for this year's festival. Visit our four day agenda on the festival website, secure your event pass, and come join us."

This year's featured speakers include:

David Crow, L.Ac., author of "In Search of the Medicine Buddha" and "Sacred Smoke". David is also co-founder of The Learning Garden, the country's largest school garden, teaching the cultivation of organic food and medicinal plants.

Livia Kohn, Ph.D., Professor Emerita of Religion and East Asian Studies at Boston University. Livia's specialty is the study of the Daoist religion and Chinese long life practices. She is a passionate author and worldwide workshop leader with Core Health, and conducts conferences on Daoism.

Heather Ash Amara, bestselling author of "Warrior Goddess Training", and "The Toltec Path of Transformation". Heather Ash is the founder of the Toltec Center of Creative Intent (Toci) featuring classes, workshops and retreats based in part on the teachings of author don Miguel Ruiz.

Anodea Judith, Ph.D., a groundbreaking thought leader and author of several bestseller books including "Wheels of Life and Eastern Body-Western Mind". Anodea Judith is the Director of Sacred Centers, she bridges the philosophies of East and West with her lectures worldwide on psychology, spirituality and the chakra system.

Jeffrey Yuen (Master Yuen), an ordained priest of two traditions of Daoism. Master Yuen is also Director of Classical Studies at Daoist Traditions College of Chinese Medical Arts in Asheville, North Carolina. He is the first recipient of the "Educator of the Year" award by the American Association of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (AAAOM).

Master Yun Xiang Tseng (Master Chen), is the festival founder. Master Chen comes from a direct line of Wu Dang Daoist priests in China. President and founder of the North American Wu Dang Taoist Association, he is also regarded as one of the most sought after Tai Chi masters in the West.

Master Chen stated, "We embrace all cultures, religions, beliefs and healing modalities. The annual festival is an opportunity for people to come and learn from a buffet of alternative healing modalities. Bringing universal consciousness to healthy lifestyles, this special event is to help everyone achieve healthy longevity. I encourage all to join us in celebrating and embracing oneness."

Registration tickets can be purchased for each day of the festival or an event pass that covers all four days. Lodging and meals for the duration of the festival are also available and can be secured with registration.

Each day of the event features guest speakers as well as individual workshops. Those interested can also sign up for the event's newsletter to receive updates on special guests and speakers.

Interested parties are invited to visit the Universal Consciousness Festival Facebook page, or visit the official festival website to learn more about the event, its speakers, and how to register.

###

For more information about Universal Consciousness Festival, contact the company here: Universal Consciousness Festival Kristina Naldjian (970) 586-4094 admin@universalconsciousnessfestival.org The Dao House 6120 Highway 7 Estes Park Colorado 80517

Universal Consciousness Festival

Located in the heart of the Rocky Mountains in Estes Park, Colorado, the Universal Consciousness Festival is about uniting cultures, beliefs and religions; based on the principle that we all want a healthy body and to live a long and fulfilling life.

Website: <http://www.universalconsciousnessfestival.org/>

Email: admin@universalconsciousnessfestival.org

Phone: (970) 586-4094

