Jucebox Local Marketing Partners, an internet marketing service based in Roseville, CA, has announced that they now have some entry level social media services available starting at $97 each month. The goal of these services is to help businesses show up consistently on social media, and the service options range from complete social media management to partnering with clients to help them write more unique, effective social media posts. Information about these services can be found on the company website at https://www.juceboxlocalmarketingpartners.com/services/social-media-marketing.

As a provider of social media services, Jucebox provides access to an all in one marketing dashboard that makes social media marketing better and easier. The dash makes customizing and editing business profiles a snap, in part because it automatically saves every change, ultimately saving not just profile edits but also time and money.

Jucebox can also provide unique, curated posts for their clients. Having curated, industry focused social media posts can be an effective method of promoting a business. Adding the appropriate hashtags and keywords can be a profile boost, as will paying attention to and responding to popular social media trends. Engaging with the algorithms in this way can help posts show up in the timelines of each business?s target demographic, allowing them to reach a larger potential clientele and ultimately have a more successful business.

Clients of Jucebox Local Marketing Partners have been extremely happy with their services, something that can be seen from the reviews of the company at https://whirlocal.io/company/jucebox-local-marketing-partners/. One review, from a customer identified as Michael S, reads, ?Rebekah, was just fantastic to work with. Her pricing was absolutely fair, her guidance in the design process was amazing, and the work they turned out was perfect. She was very patient during the process (due to our end), but in the end allowed us to finally get to where we wanted to be. She won't nickel and dime you and encourages honest input and feedback. She comes with my highest recommendation as I will always be a reference for her. Thank you!?

Along with social media services, Jucebox Local Marketing Partners offers a variety of other digital marketing services, including search engine optimization, setting up ads on Google and Facebook, directory listing, content marketing, and website design. The agency has a three-step process for each of their clients: first, they schedule a call to discuss the project. Then they develop a plan to work with clients to determine exactly what services are best for their business. Finally, they execute on the plan so their clients can win at online marketing. They are willing to work with small businesses, building up a working partnership as their clients grow and become more profitable. Their clients also include home services companies, legal practices, wellness services, non-profits, and other small service-based businesses.

Rebekah Richards, spokesperson for Jucebox, emphasized the importance of having a strong social media marketing strategy by referencing 10 key findings from the social media marketing industry report, as summarized at https://medium.com/@JBBC/10-key-findings-from-the-2019-social-media-marketing-industry-report-9ffb95b33926. The report, commissioned by the Social Media Examiner, is an annual study of how social media marketers are using social media. It covers the benefits of social media marketing, from increased exposure to the development of loyal fans. This year, it showed that Facebook continues to be the platform of choice for marketers targeting both consumers and other businesses.

Jucebox Local Marketing Partners is prepared to help companies in Roseville, California, and across the United States, harness the power of social media to promote their business. With digital marketing services such as those from Jucebox, businesses can stand out online through a number of different channels, whether they want Facebook ads, a thriving Instagram account, a striking website, or some combination of these. Anyone interested in learning more about Jucebox or hiring them for a marketing project can visit the website or contact the company to schedule a consultation. Interested customers will have a call with a team member, who will be happy to discuss the wide range of services offered by Jucebox and help each customer select what is right for them and their business.
