The residential property investment company in Greenville has updated its purchase goals in response to a growing demand for quick home cash purchases. Homeowners can sell their vacant or foreclosed homes to SC Home Offer for cash typically within 7-10 days.

Unlike listing with a realtor on the MLS, the company focuses on helping people get cash for qualifying properties in and around Greenville, South Carolina quickly. SC Home Offer can make a no-obligation offer on most South Carolina homes within 24 hours and offer fair market value based on the condition of the property and other factors. The company enables homeowners to sell any property quickly without having to invest any of their own money into closing the deal.

The Greenville cash home buyer purchases properties as-is that have suffered fire damage, needs repairs, have liens, or are being sold because of life events such as medical conditions, relocation, or death of the owner. The company specializes in providing custom solutions for any real estate situation.

SC Home Offer evaluates a home ?as-is? based on their purchase criteria and makes a full cash offer without hidden fees, appraisal fees, or closing costs. The company buys houses that real estate agents prefer not to list and close with reputable local title companies to facilitate a quick and hassle-free transaction.

When interviewed, Daniel D'Ambrosio at SC Home Offer said, ?As a company focused on ?community revitalization? we believe in providing safe, clean, and affordable housing for families in Greenville. After a strong performance in 2019, we look forward to helping individuals and families sell their homes for cash in a fast, simple and stress-free way. We then take these homes, fix them up, place them back on the market for other families to build their memories in. In some instances, we will rent the houses out to qualified tenants, thus helping to revitalize the real estate market in Greenville and all over South Carolina.?
