This fancy and elegant Malika Jafrin Kabuki Makeup Brush Set continuously establishes a name at amazon.com. Some professional artists in the field of theater appreciated how the brushes can do the contouring. Personally K.A.Holgate said that "I do youth theatre and face painting, these brushes will be great for both. You need a bigger brush for when you apply full face make-ups for characters or Day of the Dead masks. These really help get the job done quickly without sacrificing quality."

The ever-talented Malika Jafrin, who started conceptualizing these brushes, is an international artist whose turf is beautifying brides. She never stops conquering the field of Fashion, Celebrity and Media. Her flair and natural talent have pushed her to provide a service of teaching for other inspiring people who wish to become Makeup & Hairstylists.

Once you own a set of this professional standard makeup brushes, even if you are not a pro, Malika Jafrin will explain the functions of each brush. Enclosed in a professional leather-like case with separate partitions of each brush, carrying it is easy.

Made from high-quality bristles and a convenient wooden handle, you won't worry that the brush's hair will fall off once you attempt to clean it. Inserted in every purchased product is a cleaning guide that will aid you on how to do it properly to preserve the longevity of your makeup brush set. While using these brushes, I didn't experience and shedding of them and they performed as promised. When washing them up, they washed nicely and didn't lose their dexterity or fullness. The handle sits nicely in the consumer's hand made of wood. I love how these brushes are black with silver accents, A.Connoisseur commented.
