

NEW PRODUCT ALERT: Cloud Custom Connections - A Revolutionary New All-In-One Online Marketing System for Small Business Owners

August 14, 2015

August 14, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ben Fatola, CEO of Cloud Custom Solutions, a leading cloud technology company that provides innovative software as a service (SAAS) solutions based out of Arizona, unveiled their latest flagship product, Cloud Custom Connections (CCC), a one-of-a-kind marketing and remarketing solution that makes follow up simple, exciting and downright profitable - without the hefty price tag. It offers not one but three ways to market to potential and current clients ? Email, SMS and Voice.

When asked about what made the company invest so much time and resources into a complex product like this, Mr. Fatola stated that, "One of the biggest challenges small business owners face today is following up with prospects. We saw a huge need in the market to address this issue and with Cloud Custom Connections, we believe we've accomplished that - and more."

Totally cloud-based, you can access the online portal anywhere at any time on your desktop, laptop, tablet or phone. Mr. Fatola added, "CCC can help you find new leads, retain present clients, funnel your customers and grow your business. Everyone on board who has already started to use the system are excited by its potential and what it can do."

"You can get prospects to text their name and email to a local number assigned specifically to you by Cloud Custom Connections. Their number and email is automatically saved for future follow up. Prospects automatically get subscribed to your campaign and instantly get access to the information you want to send them. You can send them information in the form of automated SMS and MMS messages, autoresponder emails and voice messages. The possibilities are endless."

"We're especially excited about the direct-to-voicemail feature where leads can leave you a message or you can setup automated voice prompts so they can take any immediate action of your choosing, for example, Press 1 now to speak to me directly," emphasized Mr. Fatola.

Here are some of the top features Cloud Custom Connections offers:

Prospects text name & email to a local number assigned to you
Send automated SMS, MMS, Emails and Voice messages
Direct-to-voicemail and interactive voice calls
Turn business cards into leads using your smart phone - Coming soon
