February 20, 2020 -
Reno, Nev. - Express Employment Professionals, a leading employment center in Reno, NV, had the opportunity to interact with a local senior class as a part of Jobs for America's Graduates. The team conducted mock interviews, helped build resumes, shared tips for interviewing and even helped educate the students about the workforce.

JAG Nevada (Job's for Nevada's Graduates) targets a diverse group of Nevada youth and gives them skills and motivation to graduate and enter a career pathway. JAG teaches workplace readiness skills and assists youth to enter not just a job, but a solid career pathway in a high-demand occupation. JAG Nevada also reengages students in school to increase their motivation to further succeed after high school graduation.

?At Express we are always looking at different ways to grow the community,? stated Marketing Specialist, Jessica Davies.
