Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty is featuring on its popular site the beautiful beaches in Hilton Head Island in South Carolina.

The special feature highlights the factors why Hilton Head Island has earned a reputation as one of the top 10 family beaches in the United States. The Best Commercial Real Estate Agency in Hilton Head Island, SC particularly credits it to the island's "flawless sand spread, epic sunshine-filled days, and warm waters." With its natural wonders, it's no wonder why Hilton Head Island ranks high up on the list of one of the best places to take a relaxing vacation, according to the famous real estate agent.

"Hilton Head Island beaches are places of paradise. You can walk in the sandbanks of the Atlantic Ocean, enjoy playtime in the dunes, bounce in the surf, and bask in more than 12 miles of some of the crème de le crème beaches existing in the United States," Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty adds.

While there are beaches reserved only for the residents of Hilton Head Island plantations, there are still a lot of beaches that can be accessed by the public. Among these beaches that provide private access are the following: the Alder Lane Beach Access that's off South Forest Beach Drive, Chaplin Community Park off William Hilton Parkway, and Coligny Beach Park off Coligny Circle.

The Driessen Beach located at the end of Bradley Beach Road is also worth a visit, as well as the Fish Haul Beach Park that's off Beach City Road, and the Folly Field Beach Park that's off Folly Field Road. There is also the historical Mitchelville Freedom Park that's located at the end of Beach City Road, and the Islanders Beach Park that's off Folly Field Road.

Most of the Hilton Head beaches are also accessible, according to Charles Sampson Group of Charter One Realty, the Best Hilton Head Real Estate Rentals. Five destinations, including Alder Lane Beach, Coligny Beach Park, Driessen Beach Park, Folly Field Beach Park, and Islanders Beach Park, have been made accessible for wheelchair users by putting mats on the area.

These beaches usually get crowded during the official beach season in Hilton Head Island, which starts from the 1st of April and goes all the way to the 30th of September of each year. To ensure safety, the beaches also have their designated swimming area. During the official beach season, the designated beaches also have lifeguards to offer any information or assistance that might be needed.

The award-winning beaches of Hilton Head beaches also have designated parking. So traveling with the whole family is not a problem at all.
