Comfort Keepers of Castle Rock to Sponsor and Participate in 2020 Senior Life

February 24, 2020

February 24, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Castle Rock, Colorado - Comfort Keepers of Castle Rock will be sponsoring and participating in the 2020 Senior Life Expo on Thursday, April 16th, at 1pm at the Douglas County Events Center.

"We believe in giving back to the community," says Katie Coleman, owner of the Comfort Keepers of Castle Rock. "I have always enjoyed being around the elderly. The stories they have and the knowledge they can give is fascinating and amazing."

The Senior Life Expo is a free event and is open to the public beginning at Douglas County seniors and families are invited to join the festivities to meet with any number of the 80+ senior-oriented businesses who will be set up at the event.

It is an opportunity to listen to seminars, gain information, meet new people, and learn about a wide array of services that business in their community can offer them.

This year marks the 6th Annual Senior Life Expo in Douglas County. This will be the first year Comfort Keepers of Castle Rock will have a booth at the event since opening their doors to the public in May of 2019.

Seniors will have the opportunity to meet with Katie and the expert team of caregivers at Comfort Keepers to socialize and learn about the services that they offer. Comfort Keepers will be available to discuss the customized senior care plans and the wide array of in-home care services they offer.

This year's Senior Life Expo is being put on by the Castle Rock Senior Activity Center. To find the list of partners and the schedule of seminars this year, visit castlerockseniorcenter.org or call 303-688-9498.
