Dallas, Texas - February 26, 2020 -
Dallas, Texas based CLC Roofing Inc. is celebrating their 20th anniversary. They encourage their community to hire the best-rated company in the area and not settle for anything less. As such, customers may get in touch with the company to learn how they stand to benefit from CLC Roofing?s services.

2020 is a year of accomplishment for CLC Roofing, beginning with a big celebration that marks the significant landmark their 20th anniversary represents. Chad Cross, the owner, expressed the company's eagerness to look to the future after reaching this important milestone, saying, "We are very happy to celebrate this important achievement with the community, who has seen us grow and supported us throughout our years of service. We want to thank them for this as well as reassure them that we will continue looking after them as we always have. We will also continue to look for new ways by which we can improve our services so that our customers are guaranteed to receive the attention and outstanding roofing services that they deserve."

Throughout their extensive history, CLC Roofing Inc of Dallas has maintained a strong commitment to their customers, taking many measures to ensure that their community can rely on their services at all times. To accomplish this, they offer a wide array of roofing services that can tackle any and all roofing issues their customers may have.

"From regular maintenance to wind damage repairs or a complete replacement of your roof, you can always rely on us as your Dallas roofers," says Cross. "We will always be at your disposal, ready whenever you may need an emergency repair completed in a timely fashion. From start to finish, we are committed to getting your roofing needs addressed. You should also know that you will always be kept up to date with every stage of the entire roofing repair, installation or maintenance process."

All of the services offered by the company are carried out by a highly qualified and insured team who are just as skilled as they are friendly, thoughtful and conscientious of their customers? best interests. They can assist their customers in different ways, even offering guidance when working with insurance companies to guarantee that everything goes smoothly. This includes carefully recording any signs of damage for insurance purposes before completing any emergency repairs that may be necessary for a client's safety.

The outstanding commitment that CLC Roofing offers their customers has not gone unnoticed by the community, as made evident by the fact that the local company enjoys an outstanding 4.8-Star review score on their Google page. One of their most recent testimonials, written by Laurie Hanley, says, "CLC Roofing did everything that they promised and more. We could not be more pleased; every contractor that they sent to my home was punctual, skilled and respectful of my home. Daniel is the best of the best! He navigated us through the process and went above and beyond to put our home back together after spring storms. He is true to his word, and I am more than glad to recommend CLC & Daniel."

Another review, written by Donnie Woodlan, says, "Chad Cross runs a top-notch company. They do excellent work at CLC Roofing and are very responsive to any customer needs. They have replaced both my residential roof and 3600 sq. ft. commercial roof as well as a skylight. I have been very pleased with their work and their cleanliness. I will not hesitate to contact them for any future needs and would definitely recommend them to family or friends."
