February 27, 2020 -
PENSACOLA, Fla. ? As February comes to an end, many families in the local area are looking to book their Spring Break vacations. When planning vacations, most families are looking for a balance between cost and fun. At Avalon RV Park, the local business owners are looking to make a splash in the local vacation scene. This Spring Break, the Pensacola RV park Avalon Landing, is offering a solution to outdated and overdone typical vacations.

According to a recent study, over 53 percent of people aged 18 ? 34 plan to travel for Spring Break this year and the average millennial will spend more than $300 on Spring Break travel. Most teens will spend Spring Break relaxing or studying. Other activities include swimming, surfing and beach activities as well as visiting family or going to their hometown. Vacationing at an RV park provides all of the most popular vacation activities at a fraction of the price.

The Pensacola campgrounds of Avalon Landing are situated within miles from multiple local attractions desirable to vacationers of all ages. The RV park is located within miles of the Naval Aviation Museum, Historic Pensacola, Fort Pickens and the beautiful Gulf Coast Beaches. In addition to the local sites, throughout the year, there are plenty of festivals held in Pensacola such as the Crawfish Festival and several Blue Angels air shows. Both Pensacola Beach and Navarre Beach are less than 20 miles away from the park itself.

Many have stated spending Spring Break at an RV park in Pensacola, FL allows the opportunity to make memories with friends and family while also enjoying nature, and connecting in ways typical resort vacations are lacking in. The privacy and recreational activity opportunities provided make RV vacations a cost-efficient and exciting option to many in the local Pensacola area.
