Dallas, Texas - March 02, 2020 -
Mindmachines.com has beccome the exclusive worldwide distributor of the RoshiWave electronic self-meditation device. The pocket-sized RoshiWave meditation machine is now officially available at mindmachines.com.

The RoshiWave device is described as "a digital compass for the brain that guides the mind to a sublime meditative state without conscious effort". The RoshiWave meditation machine consits of a digital control box which is about the size of a deck of cards and two pair of RoshiGlasses. The first pair resembles sunglasses, but contains red, green and blue LEDs in each eyepiece along with a cable and plug to connect it to the control box. A RoshiVisor is also included which allows for open-eye use of the device.

"It has been seven years since pROSHI nerodynamic activator by Chuck Davis was discontinued and sold out. It was the most popular self-meditation device available at mindmachines.com when supplies ran out in 2013. Now, seven years later the RoshiWave has become available as the first new device to deliver roshi brain stimulation. Many people are excited to have the opportunity to own a device like this and after using it just once I was hooked. This is easily my all-time favorite brain machine of them all," says Fred Williams of mindmachines.com.

The RoshiWave self meditation machine is currently available at the mindmachines.com website. For more information about the RoshiWave device visit mindmachines.com
