In the review, Arnetta Conde rates Wedding Photography by IQphoto 5/5 stars and says, ?Joseph is an amazing San Francisco City Hall wedding photographer. He was so funny and just knew what to say to help me relax. He has a great eye and knows how to give you direction to capture the perfect shot. I couldn't have found a better City Hall photographer (note: I did contact some in the SF Bay Area but wasn't impressed). My friends and family all raved about the quality of the photos, which we surprisingly received in less than three weeks! Not to mention the slideshow preview they sent, a week after the wedding, was a nice touch! Thank you so much for the memories and for making my special day extra special!?

Joseph Kohn, the founder of Wedding Photography by IQphoto says, ?At IQphoto, wedding photography is not just a job for us. It?s our passion, it?s something that we take very personally. This means we?re interested in the wedding and the people in it on a personal level, not just in snapping a few photos and getting it over with. As such, when we see our hard work appreciated by our clients who trust us with documenting one of the most important days of their lives, it motivates us to keep doing our work and to keep pushing for perfection. After all, this is why we do what we do: to make people happy.?

He continues, ?Anyone can buy a digital camera and try to photograph a wedding. However, photography is about more than just the act of taking pictures. It's our way of sharing the best of times and making new friends. Whether you have planned a singularly sensational large event or small City Hall wedding, our part is to bring our unique ability to find fresh visual ideas. We're looking for our own ?Oh wow!? moments, and we have the capacity and the quick eye needed to capture these moments for you."

Wedding Photography by IQphoto provides their services in three distinct styles: traditional photography, documentary/photo-journalistic photography and editorial photography. According to the company, traditional wedding photography is the timeless style that is most commonly utilized, wherein the focus is on capturing carefully posed photographs of key moments. The documentary-style features a series of candid photos that cover the entire day, and the editorial style utilizes certain settings, good lighting, and specific locations or backgrounds to create a series of photographs that are carefully crafted.

Other reviews for the San Francisco Wedding Photography studio also elaborate on the company?s stellar services. On Google, Wedding Photography by IQphoto has a perfect rating of 5/5 stars from over 50 reviews. In her review, Peiyan Zhao says, ?Joseph is just amazing! He is super experienced and knows how to take really really good photos! He is also super funny and super friendly. My husband and I had a great time with him at City Hall for the 1-hour package. The quality of the photo and video are also super awesome. I definitely think it is worth the money and time. I have recommended him to many of my friends and will continue to do so.?
