Norfolk Buyer: We Buy Houses In Norfolk, VA

March 19, 2020

March 19, 2020 -
Norfolk, Virginia based real estate consultant Norfolk Buyer is pleased to announce that they are ready to welcome new clients. The company provides local homeowners with a way to easily sell their properties without going through too many complications. They also give sellers the opportunity to make quick money in the process.

Chris, a representative for Norfolk Buyers, says, ?At Norfolk Buyers, we are here to help people who want to sell their house, no matter what the situation is. You may want to sell your house for any one of many reasons. Whether it involves divorce, foreclosure, death of a family member, burdensome rental property or or anything else, we offer you a way to sell your house fast and get a fair cash price in return.?

He continues, ?If you?ve tried selling a house before or know someone who has, you probably know how troublesome the process can be. Not only is there the chance that you lead a life that is too busy and can?t take the time to do all of the things that typically need to be done to prepare a house to sell on the market, there is also the fact that selling your house by listing it on the MLS via an agent will actually cost you a lot more.?

According to Norfolk Buyer, certain prerequisites need to be met before homeowners can sell a property by listing it on the MLS (Multiple Listing Service). Any and all repairs and renovations that need to be done on the property must be completed beforehand, for instance. This is, of course, a process that will take both time and a fair amount of money. In addition, for the purposes of listing a property, it must also be staged. Further, while the property lies unsold, the owners will also have to pay for maintenance costs and other bills that are part of the package of owning a house. Norfolk Buyer also points out that there are numerous fees involved when selling a property via an agent.

However, if one chooses to sell their property to Norfolk Buyers, the company will buy it as is. They purchase houses in any condition and any age. Since the company works on the owner?s timeline, this also means that the one can sell the house very quickly and receive a fair cash price in return for it. Norfolk Buyer also asserts that they take no commissions or fees and, further, the seller has no obligation whatsoever to actually go through the sale if they do not want to.

In addition to Norfolk, Norfolk Buyer provides their services in the following areas around Virginia: Virginia Beach, Chesapeake and Hampton Roads. More information about the company and their services can be found at the following link: https://www.norfolkbuyer.com/.

Chris says, ?If you simply don?t want to put up with the hassle of owning that house any longer and if you don?t want to put up with the time-consuming expense of selling your property the traditional way, get in touch with us and we?ll help you out. We?re a family-owned business and we prioritize homeowners who reach out to us. We focus on helping them find solutions for their problems whether they?re going through a foreclosure, can?t sell their property or just need to sell their house for any reason.?

Norfolk Buyers provides excellent services, as proven by the positive reviews they have earned from their clients. On the Google platform, Norfolk Buyers has a perfect 5-Star rating. In a recent review, Cara Hines shares her experience with the real estate agency, saying ?Great Experience! Fast, professional and friendly people to work with. Helped answer all my questions. Give them a call if you have a house to sell.?
