

Schuster Law, Personal Injury Lawyers In Media, Open New Location

March 18, 2020

March 18, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Media, PA - Schuster Law, a Pennsylvania personal injury law firm, opened a new office in the Media to better serve clients in the community.

Attorney Ken Schuster states, "This office is operated by several experienced lawyers who are looking forward to their involvement in the community. We are proud to now serve Media and its surrounding areas and are looking forward to bringing justice to our future clients."

Schuster Law helps those who were injured in car accidents, slip and falls, accidents at work, construction accidents, and nursing home neglect by filing lawsuits and obtaining justice through compensation.

The Pennsylvania based law firm has many experienced attorneys who can also help those who need to file for workers' compensation and social security disability. The law firm also assists with litigating business disputes, medical malpractices, and several sexual assault and abuse claims.

"It is very critical that we advocate for those who cannot find justice for themselves. That is why we do not allow our clients to pay any money towards legal fees until we successfully recover compensation for their suits," Schuster comments.

Schuster Law opened its office in Media, March 2020, and serves clients from Bucks, Delaware, Montgomery, Philadelphia, and Chest County as well as the cities of Philadelphia, Springfield, Swarthmore, extended throughout nearby towns.

The personal injury attorneys at Schuster Law in Media, PA, are frequently involved in local community functions and are well-liked amongst their clients.
