March 16, 2020

March 16, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Marietta, Ga. - The Beltone Boost Ultra is a top of the line new hearing aid technology being presented by Beltone USA. The local hearing specialist in Marietta, GA is excited to be able to provide its customers with this new technology to better improve their quality of life. The Beltone Boost Ultra will allow its users to stream from important devices directly to their hearing aid. The new hearing aid has the best in class connectivity to both iPhone and Android.

The Beltone Boost Ultra is for those with extreme to severe hearing loss and is available in the Behind-the-Ear style in up to five neutral colors. Along with the ability to directly stream, the hearing aid also has CrossLink Directionality 2, which provides an increasing quality of sound by tracking the user's surroundings and switching the settings to best resemble natural speech.

The unique device also offers hearing care anywhere with the HearMax App which allows users to adjust their hearing aids from the comfort of their own home. However, technology does not stop there. The device also offers a wide variety of other technical features such as wind noise reduction, background noise reduction, NanoBlock Technology and so much more. Beltone USA in Marietta is proud to offer this top of the line hearing device to its customers.

Beltone USA is continually striving to find new products for their hearing-impaired clients to make their quality of life continually better. Beltone USA offers the most top of the line hearing aids in Marietta, GA and the Beltone Boost Ultra is no exception.
