March 20, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Wilmington, DE - Local Chiropractor Dr. Mike Francis announced he has just added a cryotherapy chamber to his state-of-the-art chiropractic office in Wilmington, DE. The service is now fully operational and people who are interested in testing out whole body cryotherapy can now book appointments by calling their office.

"Cryotherapy benefits those who are seeking to reduce pain and inflammation. There are a host of studies out there on cryotherapy resulting in improved energy and metabolism and enhanced recovery from workouts or even surgeries," stated Dr. Francis.

Dr. Francis is the owner of Francis Optimal Performance Chiropractic, a full-service chiropractic clinic serving people from Delaware, Wilmington, Claymont, Marcus Hook, Boothwyn, Naamans Manor, Brandywine, Edgemoor, Bellefonte, Holly Oak, Fairfax, Westover Hills, Elsmere, Hilltop, Baynard Village, Quaker Hill, Forty Acres, Wawaset Park, Northwest Wilmington, Scarborough Park, and Pennyhill Terrace from its location on 1800 Naamans Rd #1, Wilmington, DE 19810.

Francis Optimal Performance Chiropractic provides a full range of services including adjustments, physical therapy, massage therapy, sports injury therapy, and they regularly treat people who suffered work injuries or injuries from a car accident or slip and fall.

The chiropractic office accepts insurance and has payment plans, and several other options so that care is affordable and accessible.

"We are delighted to be able to offer Cryotherapy here in Wilmington, DE for all our current patients and we welcome others to come to check it out. We are running several special offers for new patients, and all are welcome," stated Dr. Francis.

Dr. Francis is a registered and fully licensed Chiropractor in Wilmington, DE.
