

Hilton Head 360 Releases Latest SC Real Estate Report

March 23, 2020

March 23, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Bluffton-based marketing agency Hilton Head 360, in partnership with Lowcountry Living & Real Estate and the Hilton Head Association of Realtors, has released the latest South Carolina real estate report.

The real estate report from the Top Ad Agency in Bluffton SC was based on the current Multiple Listing Service of Hilton Head Island. Released on March 10, the report showed that there is a slight decrease in the number of available properties in the market from the period of March 2019 to February 2020. At present, there are only 1,614 single-family homes in the market, lower compared to 1,822 last year. Condos and villas are also down to 432, compared to 571 in February 2019.

The available properties are expected to supply the demand in the next 4.4 months for single-family homes and 3.8 months supply for condos, as stated in the report. Meanwhile, the recent data also showed that condos and villas had the largest price gain. However, properties between $100,000 to $225,000 sell the quickest. Properties that are higher than $650,000, however, last longer in the market. They also reported that pending sales in the Hilton Head region were up by 8.7 percent.

To quickly find the best property in the Hilton Head region, Hilton Head 360 recommends everyone to check with the best ad agency in town.
