

Widdlytinks Introduces Their New Modern Farmhouse Cattle Company Name Sign Personalized Wall Art

April 14, 2020

Dallas, Texas - April 14, 2020 -

Widdlytinks wants to introduce its new Modern Farmhouse Cattle Company Name Sign Personalized Wall Art. It is the latest in their collection of unique wall décor that will help enhance the looks of any home. This online merchandiser is well known for making wall décor that is distinctive, classy, and practical. This company's products are made with care and attention to detail under the watchful eye of an award-winning artist with over 20-years' experience creating this type of art.

Company spokesperson, Amy Anderson, had this to say about the latest edition to their wall décor lineup, "We always try to come up with products that not only enhance the looks of a room in a home but add a little flair to that room too. It's why we put so much thought and effort into every piece of wall décor that we create. Having a recognized artist on staff really helps with this too. Under their expert supervision, we can prevent our wall art from having the cheesy, artificial mass-produced feel that so many wall decorations have. Our new Modern Farmhouse Cattle Company Name Sign Personalized Wall Art really keeps with this tradition. In the limited time, it has been available to the public, it's already becoming one of our most popular sale items."

According to Anderson, there is a lot to like about this ready to hang, customizable wall art. She says it all starts with the quality canvas that the print is placed on. The canvas itself is made of thick, archival grade, poly-cotton blend fiber that is PH neutral and acid-free so it will not yellow over time. Anderson says it also comes mounted on a sturdy wooden frame that is supported by dried pine stretcher bars to ensure the frame will not warp or bow over time. She stated this is also a versatile piece of wall art that will add to the looks of living rooms, kitchens, bedrooms and more.

Anderson added that one of the biggest selling points of this new wall décor is the fact that it can be personalized with the owner's surname or any other they name that they choose to put on it. That in itself always makes a statement when this wall art is on display. Widdlytinks my family name signs even bring a sense of pride to those that have them hanging on a wall in their home or office. This wall décor product also comes in several different sizes. This includes 16"x12", 24"x18", 32"x24", 40"x30", 48"x36, and 60"x45" inch sizes. She says they offer many different size options so the Modern Farmhouse Cattle Company Name Sign Personalized Wall Art will complement the rooms that it's placed in instead of taking over the décor in a room.

The company spokesperson says that they have made ordering this product very simple too. All a person has to do is select their desired size, the name they want on it, and the established year. She says that the product is designed to even accommodate very long surnames. Once these three things have been filled out, there is then a box to check that states the information is correct. If a customer requests it, those at Widdlytinks will even email me a digital proof to a customer for approval before their order is shipped. After this form is completed, the customer just clicks on the cart and pays for an item with their credit card.

Anderson also mentioned that this is not the only type of wall décor that they have available for purchase. The company also features modern industrial décor, vintage style wall hangings, and other types of Rustic farmhouse décor. She added that they even have seasonal types of wall hangings for such occasions as Easter, Christmas, Halloween, and Valentine's Day.

For more information on these farmhouse wall signs and the other types of wall décor that Widdlytinks sells, Anderson says the company's website is full of descriptions and useful specs on their products.
