Dallas, Texas - April 04, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Widdlytinks is happy to announce that Their New Rustic Homestead Barn Sign with Family Name Wall Art is now available. It's the latest of their long list of unique wall décor items. The company says it was created to help add a touch of vintage farmhouse charm to the walls in a home it's displayed on. Like all of the company's wall décor products, it was created under the watchful eye of an award-winning artist.

Amy Anderson, a spokesperson for the company, said this about their most recent wall art offering, "We are always very excited to see how our wall décor creations are received by the general public when they first go up for sale. It's no different with our New Rustic Homestead Barn Sign with Family Name Wall Art. Everyone here is anxious to see if all the time, effort, and resources we put into creating this wall art offering will pay off. So far, all of the signs point toward this particular piece of wall art fast becoming one of our most popular wall décor products."

The company spokesperson went on to describe the features of the Rustic Homestead Barn Sign with Family Name Wall Art. She says that print itself is placed on thick, archival grade, poly-cotton blend canvas. This was done to ensure excellent durability. The canvas is also PH neutral and acid-free to ensure that it will not yellow over time. The side edges of the print are also nicely done up in black. Anderson noted that much thought even went into the frame design. The frame is a generous 1 ½" thick and is supported by dried pine stretcher bars to ensure the frame will not warp or bow over time. Attached to the frame is a preinstalled sawtooth hanger that will allow a customer to hang it up immediately when their wall art arrives.

Anderson said that one of the goals that they had in mind when designing this rustic wall decor art was to make it as versatile as it could possibly be. They were able to do that by offering it in different sizes and with a few customizable features. According to the company spokesperson it comes in 16"x12", 24"x18", 32"x24", 40"x30", 48"x36, and 60"x45" inch sizes. She says that the smaller sizes work great in smaller rooms such as kitchens, bedrooms, and offices and the larger sizes are perfect for formal dining rooms, large living rooms, and finished basements that are used for entertaining. The customizable features include a name, established year, and city and state. People are free to get creative with these customizable options in any way that they want. Anderson added that the fact that these unique pieces of wall art can be customized, also makes them a great birthday, anniversary, wedding or housewarming gift.

According to Anderson, the ordering process is very simple and straightforward too. One simply has to fill out the order form on the product description page. This includes the selection of the name, established year, and city and state they want on the print. Once this is done the customer then just has to confirm the information they input and then pay for the product. She says the customer even has the option of choosing to receive an email with a digital proof to approve before their order is shipped.

Anderson says that for those that would like something a little different than the Rustic Homestead Barn Sign with Family Name Wall Art, they have many different wall art options available on their website. Some of their other custom canvas prints include their Modern Farmhouse Cattle Company Name Sign Personalized Wall Art and the popular Modern Farmhouse Homestead Family Sign. She also mentioned that they had seasonal wall art offerings, other rustic and distressed type prints and several prints that come with many personalized options. Anderson added that every wall art purchase is made in the USA and includes a fast turnaround with totally free shipping.
