Hilton Head 360 Features Latest Realtor Of The Year Awardee

March 29, 2020

March 29, 2020 -
Hilton Head?s realtor of the year awardee, Seth Tilton, is among this month?s featured personality by South Carolina?s top media company, Hilton Head 360.

Tilton received the 2019 Realtor of the Year award from the Hilton Head Area Realtors, the largest real estate trade association in the region. The prestigious award is bestowed to members with good standing and someone who has demonstrated active involvement in civic and community affairs. The awardee also promotes a positive image of the association and the industry publicly throughout the community. It is also given to realtors who have earned the respect of their colleagues and someone who has demonstrated strong leadership.

As published on Hilton Head 360?s website, Tilton is a known realtor from ERA Evergreen. Apart from being a top performer, he has also served the association on numerous committees, including the Young Professional Network Committee, Conference Committee, and most recently chairing the Professional Development Committee. He is also active in the community and has served as Board of Directors for the Sandbox Museum and as coach and sponsor at Hilton Head Island Recreation Center.

Tilton is also an avid supporter of several causes. He was the 2019 title sponsor for the Michael J Fox Foundation Beer Run, a non-profit organization for Parkinson?s research. He also supports events that promote suicide prevention, as well as the fundraisers for the Hilton Head Dance Theater. He is also a member of the Bluffton Chapter of the Coastal Conservation Association and Port Royal Sound Foundation.

Tilton only started his career as a realtor in 2015 and since then showed his dedication to his career. In fact, from 2016, he is already a consistent recipient of the Realtor® Service Award.
