BMW 4 Series Special Lease Offer at Watertown BMW

March 26, 2020

March 26, 2020 -
A special lease offer was just announced on the BMW 430i at Watertown BMW. For $449 per month for 36 months, and $3,999 due at signing, select 2020 coupe models like the rear-wheel drive 430i can be leased today. Gas mileage on the new 4 Series ranges from 23 MPG in the city to 34 MPG on the highway. The design proves to be sleek yet practical.

The 2020 BMW 430i exhibits a comfortable and safe ride with Dynamic Traction Control (DTC), parking sensors, emergency braking assist, and Active Driving Assistant. In addition, many features can be accessed directly from the steering wheel for convenience. It comes with plenty of airbags on the driver?s and passenger?s side for added assurance. Other standard features on the 430i include a turbocharged 248-horsepower, 2.0 liter engine and an 8-speed sport automatic transmission (meaning the driver has an option of manual shifting if desired). Electronic engine cooling is also a component that comes standard on the new 4 Series for optimal driving conditions. Even more enticing is the wireless phone charger that comes built-in inside the cabin. An onboard WiFi hotspot is also incorporated into the new 4 Series so all passengers can stay connected.

One optional feature on the new 4 Series is the 10.25? digital display cluster that changes depending on which driving mode is being used. The optional head-up display projects directions, warning signals, and more right onto the windshield. The BMW Connected feature can sync with smartphones to send alerts and notifications.

According to Dealer Rater, a popular car dealership ratings website, the BMW of Watertown has been known for an easy car-buying experience. On Dealer Rater, a customer recanted that it was "...the best car buying experience [he/she] ever had... was excellent from start to finish... phenomenal to work with and extremely knowledgeable!?
